Plaque Placed On Covered Bridge

A plaque that will tell the story of this vanishing bit of Americana to future generations was placed at the shortest timber covered bridge in Ohio in a ceremony Sunday afternoon.

Spanning a stream called Middle Run, the bridge is on the Church Hill Rd., two and a half miles northeast of Lisbon in Elk Run Township. Pictured after the dedication rite, from left, are:

Charles Pratt of Columbus, superintendent of properties for the Ohio Historical Society and member of the Ohio Covered Bridge Committee; John A. Diehl of Cincinnati, chairman of the Ohio committee, who was the principal speaker; Miss Wilda Immel of Louisville and Thomas Malone of Homeworth, members of the Northern Ohio Covered Bridge Society, and Thomas W. Bode of Youngstown, president of the Northern Ohio society, who presided.

The little bridge is on its original abutments in a small Columbiana County park created to preserve it for posterity. The bridge was built in the early 1870's. It has a truss length of 22 feet and a clear span of slightly over 19 feet.

There are five other covered bridges in Columbiana County, all of them still in use.

The Ohio Historical Markers Committee furnished the marker in the same design as those marking three other covered bridges in Ohio. East Liverpool Historical Society paid for the Church Hill marker.

Columbiana County commissioners vacated a portion of the road on which the bridge stands and built a new road around it.

Over 200 persons gathered for the program under an old oak tree — 48 inches in diameter— in the little park where the old road used to go. Camera fans shot hundreds of pictures from every angle.

The temperature was above 90 degrees and a light rain fell briefly and unheeded as Bode called on the Rev. Harry J. Scheidemantle of Columbiana

Kennedy Reaches Rome

President Meets Italian Leaders In Unity Effort

ROME (AP)—President Kennedy arrived in Rome today to a sparse reception by Italian standards and promptly went into a conference with Italian leaders in his drive to build stronger unity between the United States and Western Europe.

Kennedy told an airport reception of Italian leaders and Americans that he had come to seek ways for the United States and its allies to maintain their 15-year-old alliance. He was expected to find the Italian officials receptive. Tuesday he will meet Pope Paul VI.

On his drive from the airport the President rode past Rome's ancient splendor.

A turnout of only tens of thousands of Romans was a contrast to the throngs who flocked to see the President in Germany and Ireland.

It was a searing hot day, with the temperature in the 90s, and the traditional start of vacation time for Italians. Kennedy's motorcade from the airport was held up 10 minutes by heavy traffic on the road to the sea resorts.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, announced that Kennedy would leave Italy for Washington Tuesday night instead of Wednesday morning, ending his European trip about 15 hours earlier than originally planned.

Salinger said the presidential plane would depart from Naples at 7 p.m. Tuesday after Kennedy visited North Atlantic Treaty Organization headquarters.

A spokesman for the Italian president said Segni and Kennedy met alone at first while Leone, Rusk and Foreign Minister Attilio Piccioni conferred in another room.

Segni and Kennedy talked for thirty minutes in the Italian president's private studio.

Then they joined the others, and aides, in an adjoining room for a further exchange of views.

Tuesday the President has his historic meeting with Pope Paul VI.

Kennedy flew here from Milan after spending the night relaxing at a villa beside Lake Como.

At the seaside airport here about 500 Americans cheered the President from the observation platform on the roof of the airport building.

The Italian president told Kennedy their talks would enable them to review "in a spirit of mutual collaboration and with a high sense of responsibility . . . the grave problems of the hour."

Kennedy in reply said he came to determine how the United States and its allies can maintain "the intimate association, the intimate alliance which has marked our affairs during the past 15 years."

Italy and the United States, he added, "must assure that their "association remains as strong in the future as in the past."

3 Injured At Route 45 Intersection

Tennessee Car Hit By Cement Rig At Red Traffic Signal

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Four Tennessee residents were killed today in the collision of an auomobile and a cement truck at the intersection of U.S. 224 and Ohio 45, about 15 miles southeast of Youngstown. Three other persons were injured.

Mrs. Bonnie Goodman, 37, of (303 May St.) Sweetwater, Tenn., died in South Side Hospital here about three hours after the crash.

Two of the other victims were identified as Ernest H. Goodman, 18-year-old son of the dead woman, and Robert S. Green, 21, of Rt. 4, London, Tenn. The fourth was identified tentatively as Green's wife, about 18.

Clinton Goodman, 43, husband of the dead woman, and their 16-year-old daughter, Sherry, were among those admitted to the hospital.

Also hospitalized was Harry Vitril, 40, of Wampum, Pa. The Ohio Highway Patrol said he apparently was the truck driver. He was reported in good condition with cuts on the head and body.

Mrs. Goodman told hospital attendants before lapsing into unconsciousness that the Tennessee people were en route to Warren for a visit.

Highway Patrol officers said witnesses told them the car was northbound on Ohio 45 and entered the intersection just as the light turned red. It was struck near the front end by the westbound truck. Both vehicles came to a stop about 150 feet from the intersection. The auto was demolished and the truck turned over on its side in the driveway of a service station.

AEC Claims Evidence Of Red A-Blast

Russians May Have Conducted Nuclear Test, Report States

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission says it has inconclusive evidence of possible recent Soviet nuclear tests of very low yield.

"The evidence remains inconclusive and it is expected that more definite conclusions must await further evidence and analysis," an AEC spokesman said in a brief announcement prompted by published speculation of such tests.

An informed source said a Soviet test in the range of one kiloton apparently did take place June 12, two days after President Kennedy announced the halt of any further U.S. atmospheric tests provided other nuclear nations also refrained.

However, the prevailing guess among Washington officials was that if the Soviets did conduct a test, it was an underground rather than an atmospheric explosion.

Viet Nam Claims 172 Red Guerrillas Killed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — President Ngo Dinh Diem's forces claimed they killed 172 Communist guerrillas in weekend ground and air strikes in the Mekong River delta.

Vietnamese officers said 110 Reds were killed Sunday when an armored column struck at guerrillas in Kien Phong Province on the Plain of Reeds.

Fighter plane strikes Saturday killed 62 guerrillas, American sources said.

Marshal Tito Elected To Unrestricted Term

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) —Yugoslavia's Communist Parliament has unanimously re-elected Marshal Tito president of Yugoslavia for a fourth and unlimited term. He became president in 1953.

The nation's new constitution allows Tito, 71, to serve for life unless he decides to step aside.

250,000 See Crowning

Pope Dedicates Reign To 'Peace'

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI dedicated his reign to world peace and Christian unity Sunday night, stressing the universality of his pledge with a coronation address in nine languages.

A quarter of a million spectators, the greatest throng ever to witness a papal coronation, jammed St. Peter's Square to see Paul VI crowned amid ritual splendor.

Speaking first in Latin and then in eight modern languages, the 262nd supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church dedicated his reign to the twin goals of his world - acclaimed predecessor, Pope John XXIII.

He appealed for sacrifice in the interest of world peace and acknowledged the "gravity of the obstacles" on the road to Christian unity. He warned that neither goal can be reached easily.

In the highlight of the 2½ hour ceremony, Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani placed a new lightweight beehive crown on the head of Pope Paul, the former Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini of Milan.

As he did so, he said: "Receive this tiara, adorned with three crowns, and know that you are the father of princes and kings, guide of the world and vicar on earth of Christ Jesus our Savior."

The new spiritual ruler of half billion Roman Catholics opens his personal quest in the cause of peace Tuesday in a historic meeting with President Kennedy, first Roman Catholic chief executive of the United States.

If Pope Paul continues changes instituted by Pope John in Vatican relations with Communist countries, eventually he may also receive Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The ceremony began as a brilliant summer sun settled into a violet sky.

The ceremony ran 2½ hours into the night. Great spotlights lit up

History Re-Lived

Huge Crowds See Battle Centennial At Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Drawn by the magnet of awesome history, throngs from North and South commemorate today the beginning of the greatest battle ever fought in the Western Hemisphere.

On this day 100 years ago Gen. Robert E. Lee's Confederates drove the hosts of Gen. George Gordon Meade across rolling countryside and through the streets of Gettysburg—only to find the federal troops finally rallying on Cemetery Hill and Ridge.

Three days later Lee, a beaten man nobly asserting, "It was all my fault," ordered a retreat—and the Civil War had reached its turning point.

The highlight of today's commemoration was a solemn afternoon ceremony at the Eternal Light peace memorial overlooking the scene of the first day's clash.

Governors or other representatives of 27 of the 29 states whose men fought and fell here were on hand to lay wreaths at the monument's base and otherwise pay tribute to the dead. Louisiana and Tennessee decided not to send a representation.

Another event on today's program was the dedication by Postmaster General J. Edward Day of a Gettysburg commemorative stamp. Half gray and half blue, the stamp shows a federal and a man from Dixie locked in bayonet combat.

Throughout the three-day observance "Vignettes of History" will be given by amateur theatrical groups clad in reproductions of the dress of a century ago.

For example there will be a playlet each morning at Devil's Den or Sharpshooter's Roost. This was a place of violence and death which was won and lost many times by both sides during the

Senate Given Rights Views Of Kennedys

Discrimination Hit In Appearance By Atty. Gen. Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy declared today that segregation of privately owned businesses that serve the public is "one of the most embittering forms of racial discrimination," and asked Congress to outlaw it.

Testifying in behalf of a key provision of President Kennedy's civil rights package, the attorney general told the Senate Commerce Committee that such discrimination is an insult and humiliation to millions of American citizens.

Describing what he called "the immoral logic of bigotry," Kennedy said in his prepared statement:

"White people of whatever kind —even prostitutes, narcotics pushers, Communists or bank robbers —are welcome at establishments which will not admit certain of our federal judges, ambassadors and countless members of our armed forces."

Kennedy, generally following the same arguments he presented in testifying for the rights package last week before a House subcommittee, said the administration bill to outlaw segregation in public accommodations would set no legislative precedent and deny no right except "the right to discriminate—so plainly a right to commit wrong."

In the Senate, the public accommodations provision is not only up against stiff opposition from Southerners who have denounced it as an assault on private property rights but it also lacks the support of Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

Dirksen has introduced a substitute bill that would rely on persuasion, rather than compulsion, to end discrimination in places catering to the public.

The attorney general said the private property argument "should be rejected as a smokescreen."

"It would be far better if problems like this were handled by

Pair Rescues Salem Man In Lake Mishap

LISBON — A 59-year-old Salem district man is continuing to improve today from a narrow brush with death early Saturday night after he tumbled out of his motorboat at nearby Guilford Lake. A Leetonia youth and a Canton man were credited with saving him from drowning.

Cecil Rogers of Salem R. D. 2 was rescued about 6:20 p. m. Saturday by Robert Spencer, 16, a Leetonia High School junior, and Robert Braucher, a 36-year-old Canton mechanic.

Authorities said Rogers fell from his outboard boat about 150 feet from shore, north of Whinnery's landing. He was unconscious when pulled from the water and taken to shore, but revived when a resuscitator was used on him by Chief Roy Guthrie of the Guilford volunteer fire department.

Rogers later was removed to Salem Central Clinic, where oxygen was administered.

Authorities said John Larson of Canton saw Roger stand up, then fall out of his boat. Larson and Braucher, his son - in -law, were in Larson's boat near shore working on a balky motor.

The two said Rogers' arms

Yorkville Mayor Gets Jefferson County Post

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The Jefferson County Democratic Central Committee Saturday appointed Nick Calabria, mayor of Yorkville, as a county commissioner.

Calbria will fill the unexpired term of Eugene A. Blum, who died last week. It runs until Dec. 31, 1964.

Calabria was serving his 12th, two-year term as Yorkville mayor. He also owns the Vine Cliff golf course north of Yorkville along the Ohio River.

Rain Slated Tuesday May Help Chase Heat

Scattered showers that are due late Tuesday afternoon and night may help ease the heat gripping the area, the weatherman said.

But there's no such pleasant word for today. The weather is scheduled to be very warm and humid, with the mercury ranging up to a high of 87-93.

The low tonight will be 68-74, the forecaster said.

Berlin Parley Shows New Break

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet satellite leaders headed home today after a weekend meeting with Premier Khrushchev, apparently called to renew support for him in his worsening dispute with Communist China.

Janos Kadar of Hungary left for Budapest Sunday night. Wladyslaw Gomulka of Poland flew back to Warsaw today.

The show of unity was marred by the conspicuous absence of Romania's veteran Red leader, Georghe Gheorghiu-Dej. This roused speculation there may be a new break in the Red facade.

Khrushchev will address a rally here Tuesday, the East Berlin press announced.

Khrushchev told an East German audience Sunday night that communism stands "as firm as granite." But the gap in the ranks of the European Reds standing glumly around him underlined the growing crisis in the world Communist movement.

Also absent—as expected—was Albania which has supported Communist China in its dispute with the Soviet Union.

Romania's absence was all the more glaring since Krhsuchev presumably summoned his satellite chiefs to muster support for conference with the Red Chinese which opens in Moscow Friday.

Red China declared today that its quarrel with the Soviet Union had grown from an ideological dispute to a question of government relations.

It said it still intends to send a delegation to Moscow to discuss differences but emphasized that it will hold to its tough line.

A Chinese Communist party statement charged that the Soviet expulsion of five Chinese from the Soviet Union last week constituted a "serious step in further worsening of Chinese-Soviet relations and in manufacturing a split in the international Communist movement."

Naming Of Lodge Won't Divert Kennedy's Critics

In naming Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. to be ambassador to South Viet Nam, President Kennedy has again demonstrated a tendency to fill political hot jobs with Republicans. The rollcall includes such administration stalwarts as Robert S. McNamara and C. Douglas Dillon. But does it inhibit GOP criticism? Jack Bell, Associated Press political writer, discusses the situation.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy can expect early and overwhelming Senate approval of his nomination of Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. as ambassador to South Viet Nam.

But there will be no accompanying guarantee that Republicans will soft pedal their criticism of administration Asian policies as a result.

In picking Lodge, the 1960 GOP vice presidential nominee, for the tough Saigon post, Kennedy demonstrated anew a tendency to dip into Republican ranks when there is a politically controversial job to fill.

Republicans Robert S. McNamara in defense and C. Douglas Dillon at the Treasury plug two Cabinet hot spots. Former GOP Secretary of State Christian A. Herter serves as the President's international trade negotiator. William C. Foster, once a Westchester County, N.Y., GOP official, heads up the disarmament agency.

Republican John A. McCone runs the Central Intelligence Agency. In the past when the President needed an old hand for particularly difficult fencing with the Russians, he has called in

Woman Cited In Husband's Stab Wounds

An East Liverpool woman was charged with assault with a deadly weapon after admitting she stabbed her husband with a paring knife Saturday night about 11:30 as the climax of a quarrel, police reported.

Linn W. Wilson, 51, of 2100 Crawford Ave. was released after treatment at City Hospital for a series of half-inch stab wounds in the abdomen, police said. His wife, Mrs. Azie Lee Wilson, was named as the assailant.

Lt. William E. McDaniel said Mrs. Wilson admitted cutting her husband and surrendered the knife to the police department.

Wilson told police he returned home about 11:30 Saturday, driving his auto into the yard at his home. Then his wife appeared, opened the auto door and asked who had left a cigarette in the back seat, he said.

Wilson told police when he replied he did not know she replied: "Don't you lie to me; I'll kill you!"

"That's when she stabbed me in the stomach," he told officers.

Appearing in Municipal Court this morning with her counsel, Atty. George Aronson, Mrs. Wilson entered a not guilty plea.

To allow Atty. Aronson time to confer with his client, the case was continued until Friday at 9 a. m. and her bond was set at $500 by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Old Soldiers' Dream

By Bert Quinn

In Mexico, "Old Soldiers" do not even fade away. They join an organization called the National Defending Coalition of the Territorial Sovereignity of the Republic of Mexico and attack the right of the State of California to enjoy as its own the pleasure resort of Santa Catalina.

This organization was founded on June 3 and consists principally of retired military officers, a commodity with which Mexico abounds.

Its sights, for the moment at least, are set on a group of islands strung out along the California coast from San Diego nearly as far as San Francisco.

They are the Santa Barbara Islands — Santa Catalina, which was bought and developed in 1919 by William Wrigley as a luxury sun and surf haven, San Miguel, Santa Rosa, Santa Cruz, Anacapa, San Nicolas, Santa Barbara and San Clemente.

IT ISN'T that the National Defending Coalition of the Territorial Sovereignity of the Republic of Mexico, or the NDSTRM, as some of its not-so-long-winded members call it, referring to its initials in Spanish, have anything against California or, for that matter, against the Wrigley Family. It is just, says Jose Paniagua Aredondo, secretary general (It couldn't be anything less than general) of the group, that the islands rightfully belong to Mexico.

And now that the United States is proving to be such a friendly neighbor by settling another 100-year-old border dispute — that over the El Chamizal section of El Paso, Texas, which the United States is about to give back almost in its entirety to Mexico —this is the moment to fish some more claims out of the history books.

The islands were discovered in 1542 by a Spaniard, Cabrillo. They were considered part of New Spain, which included what now is Mexico as well as California and much of the United States Southwest. Spain recognized Mexico's right to the islands when Mexico won its independence in 1821.

The NDSTRM claims that neither the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo nor the Gadsden Purchase, which together gave the United States about half of Mexico's total territory, included title to the Islands.

It was the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo of Feb. 2, 1848, that ended the war between the two countries provoked by Texas' desire for independence from Mexico. Under its terms, the United states of California, New Mexico, Texas and to what are now the States of California, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and part of Colorado.

Mexico got in return $15 million and cancellation of all outstanding claims by Americans.

By the Gadsden Purchase of 1853, the United States acquired for $10 million a 45,000 square mile strip of Mexico's Mesilla Valley, incorporated later into Arizona and New Mexico, for a railway route to the Pacific.

According to the NDSTRM, the United States cannot claim the right of conquest over the islands because this would be contrary to the Guadalupe Hidalgo Treaty. It also states that the islands are too far offshore to be considered within United States territorial waters.

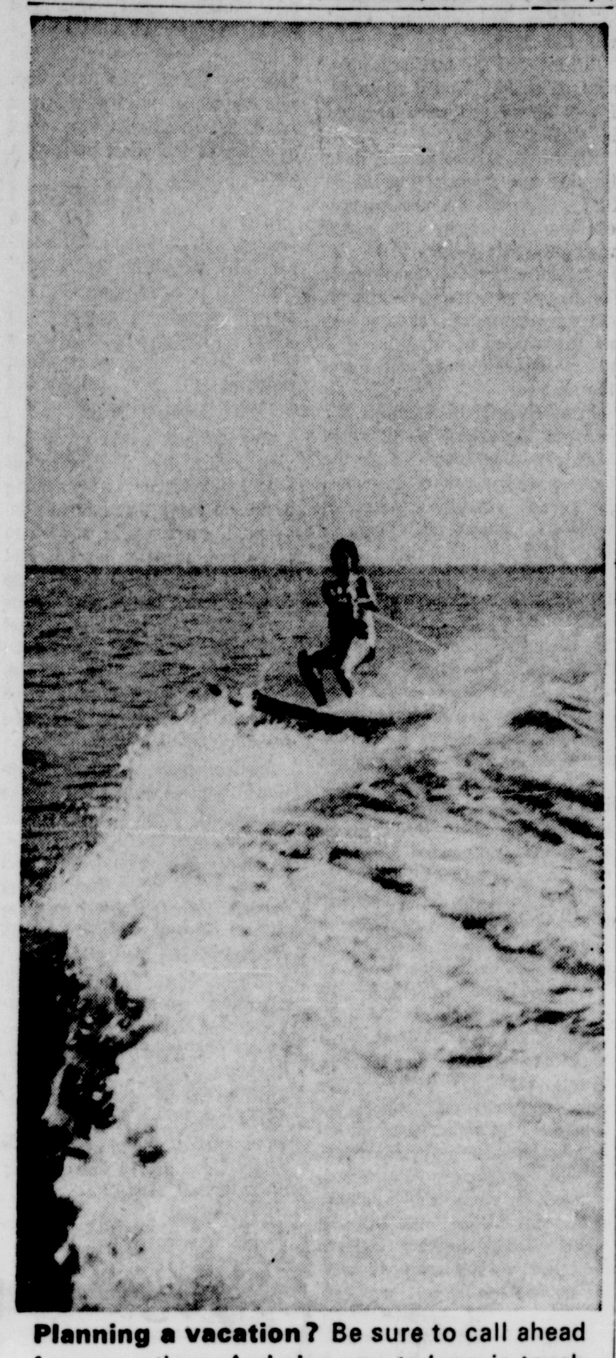

BESIDES, declares the organization, Mexico has exercised acts of dominion over the islands since the signing of the Guadalupe Hidalgo Treaty without any objection on the part of the United States.

Thus, Senor Paniagua insists, the islands belong to Mexico. His group is putting pressure on the Mexican Government to officially request their "return," a step the government has shown no indication of taking.

The way the old soldiers of the NDSTRM look at it, a settlement in favor of Mexico would be good for all concerned — for Mexico because it would be getting what is rightfully its own and for the United States because it would be demonstrating to the world that "difficulties can be overcome by countries that are genuinely desirous of being friends."

flailed the air and the Salem man's boat was running in circles before he fell in the water. Larson shouted to some swimmers to help Rogers. Meanwhile, he and Braucher attempted to paddle their disabled boat to the scene, using one oar.

Braucher, deciding their progress was too slow, removed his shoes and trousers and swam toward Rogers. Meanwhile, the Leetonia youth swam to the spot where he had seen Rogers disappear and made a surface dive. He found the Salem man about 10 feet beneath the surface, spotting him on his first dive.

Braucher was there to help when Spencer surfaced with Rogers in tow. Unable to lift Rogers into the Larson boat, they clung to the gunwales to support him until the craft reached shore.

Spencer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Spencer of Salem R. D. 3. Braucher is a mechanic for the Ray Brown Trucking Co. of Canton.

Rogers, a diemaker for the Sekey Tool & Die Co. of Salem, had gone to the lake with his wife, Vernice, and rented a boat. However, authorities said he was alone in the craft when he fell into the lake.

The rescue was made before a crowd of swimmers and picnickers who watched from the hillside. Park Manager Walter Burbick and Roy Painter, lake patrolman and Hanover Township constable, summoned the fire department and ambulance.

Rogers, a Winona resident, remained a patient in the Salem hospital today. His wife said doctors plan to make additional tests on him today. He was taken out of oxygen Sunday, she related.

Mrs. Rogers said her husband does not know how he happened to fall out of the boat. He said he is able to swim, but has not been swimming for many years.

Mrs. Rogers said her husband rented a boat about 3 p. m. and went fishing alone. She said she began to look for him about 6:15 and went to the top of the hillside above the picnic area. A grove of tall pine trees blocked her view of the point where rescurers were towing her husband ashore even as she looked for him.

She said she thought he might have gone to the Marks Landing area farther east, so she drove there and waited a while. It was 8:30 when she returned to Whinnery's and learned of the accident from Braucher, who was still there.

Rain, Slides Claim 18 In Japan On Weekend

TOKYO (AP)—The death toll from a weekend wave of landslides and rainstorms in southern Japan has mounted to 18, with 28 injured and 14 missing, national police said today.

Downpours Sunday flooded 31,870 homes in two Southern states alone, police said, causing 233 landslides and huge crop destruction. Property damage was estimated in tens of millions of dollars.

Mrs. Murphy's Moment Of Fame

It is inconceivable that the attorney general of the United States could see merit in the idea of exempting keepers of small public accommodations from the civil rights crackdown he is proposing for public accommodations in general.

The exempted keepers have been tagged the "Mrs. Murphys," following a remark by a U.S. senator that he didn't think the federal government should tell "Mrs. Murphy" whom she had to accept for overnight lodging in a tourist home.

If young Robert F. Kennedy tries to torture the law into making hairline distinctions between citizens on the basis of the scope of their business operations, he will betray all the trust that has been put in his integrity as the country's foremost official legal officer.

THERE CAN BE no legal distinctions between citizens on the basis of income. If a law is good enough for Conrad Hilton, it is good enough for Mrs. Murphy. If it's good enough for Mrs. Murphy, it's good enough for Mr. Hilton. The attorney general should make this clear.

He should make clear, also, in his key role in the civil rights showdown that the Democratic party is now and has been in complete control of the House and Senate, with enough votes to put through anything a Democratic administration desires. It has ducked the issue.

Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman desired nothing. No progress was made until the Eisenhower administration came into power. The Kennedy administration showed no intention of doing anything until Negroes began to march.

And now that it must go through the motions, knowing full well its Southern faction will block action, there is a strong suspicion that its chief strategist, Atty. Gen. Kennedy, will shift the blame to the Republican minority for the failure of the Democratic majority to do what its Southern irreconcilables will not let it do.

IF THE attorney general would dispel that suspicion as well as the suspicion that he sees a difference between Mrs. Murphy and Mr. Hilton, his public image would improve by leaps and bounds.

These are difficult enough times for everybody without the added handicap of devious thinking at the top.

No Intervention In Steel

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steel Workers, made this significant comment after his union and main elements of the steel industry had agreed on a new contract without so much as the threat of a strike:

"We are proud, as I know the industry must be, that there never has been at any stage of these ultimately fruitful discussions any intervention by any outside agency. We sought no aid and none was profferred."

Mr. McDonald was referring to the absence of federal mediation. He was referring to the absence of the various steps that have been taken in past years to bring employers and union negotiators under the official gun for a settlement of contract difficulties.

THIS TIME a new technique was being tried—a group of men called the Human Relations Committee, whose job was to carry on discussions continuously, instead of trying to settle delicate issues under extreme pressure at strike deadlines.

Other unions and other employers all over the United States have watched this historic experiment in the steel industry, mindful of the fact its labor relations have been as turbulent as any to be found anywhere. If good will and systematic exchange of views could work here, they could become the magic touch to overcome bitterness and misunderstanding in other industries.

If steel could find a way to carry on collective bargaining without last-minute intervention by politicians using the authority of government to break deadlocks in private negotiations, it could happen other places too.

MR. McDONALD seems to feel it was as important to get a settlement without government interference as it was to get a settlement without a strike.

The truth is that free collective bargaining ceases to be that in fact whenever coercion is practiced.

Call In The Law

By Truman Twill

To my mind the strongest move by the White House in the showdown on Negro rights has been to call in the lawyers.

Negro rights ultimately will be gained down at the polls, when politicians must do what Negro voters want them to do or hunt for a living elsewhere. Politicians tend to be lawyers as a rule and will not feel the pressure until Negroes have the full weight of the legal profession on their side.

This is the way it seems to me. If nearly all the lawyers in this country, sworn to uphold and defend the Constitution, upheld it and defended it in behalf of Negroes, the trouble about Negro rights would be over.

The unhappy truth is that many lawyers have taken it on themselves to undermine and excoriate the Constitution in behalf of themselves and irreconcilable clients who never recognized the authority of the Union and aren't about to recognize it now.

These faithless legalists and people who back them up with speeches, reactionary articles in publications and money from the purses of people who want to use their wealth and persuasion to make a mockery of the American ideal are reveling in their minority power to block majority rule.

They salve their consciences with legalistic unguents squeezed out on demand by barristers interested in serving a concept of national organization that has no justification, except in the minds of people unable to understand why the United States had to win the Civil War or give up its dream of being a nation.

This is why lawyers need to stand and deliver.

Their moment of truth as defenders of the Constitution has been reached.

It is not to be hoped for that those who have been undermining the Constitution will change their attitude. It is to be hoped only that those who have been letting this go on will assert themselves.

They have been asked to do this service by the chief justice of the United States.

They have been urged to assert themselves by the president of the United States.

Each has sworn a personal oath to do it.

Even if they had no other reason, they owe it to their fellowmen as citizens versed thoroughly in the text and meaning of the law and the means of using legal leverage to move otherwise immovable obstacles.

The most admirable men in the harried South have been federal judges who have upheld the Constitution in Southern judicial districts.

These jurists have had to withstand the opprobrium of their friends and neighbors to carry out their responsibility.

They have gone against the grain of their communities to do what they knew to be right. They have braved the intemperate abuse of other laywers, furious because the federal judges were right and they were wrong.

If Negroes get Constitution-respecting lawyers and vote-respecting politicians on their side, their fight for equal citizenship will be a shoo-in.

Communist Split

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

A shattering Russian - Red Chinese split, something the most cunning Western statesmen could not have engineered, seems certain now, perhaps this week.

If this doesn't drive Russia closer to the West, at least it will force her to divert more of her thinking and resources to coping with Red China in Asia and elsewhere.

This will be the best break for the allies since the cold war began. But it doesn't mean world peace is any closer or that the Atlantic partners will have sense enough to make the most of the crack in the enemy camp.

On the contrary, they may start cutting capers of their own until they, too, make a mess of themselves.

They stood together solidly enough when they felt intense pressure and danger from Russia. When Premier Khrushchev seemed to relax, they began to relax and to assert their ancient nationalism, which was exactly the basic cause of the Russian-Chinese split.

French President de Gaulle buffeted both the United States and Britain in what seems to be his dream of a French grandeur which belonged in another century.

He barred Britain from the European Common Market, challenged America's loyalty to its allies if they were attacked, and, using this for an excuse, is making his own nuclear weapons over American protests.

This is probably only the beginning of the allies' problems with one another. But if all these problems melted tomorrow, the Russian -Red Chinese split still wouldn't bring world peace closer.

Last week Secretary General U. Thant of the United Nations guessed the Chinese Communists would explode their first atomic bomb this year or next. They have been working on it for years with little or no help from Russia.

Just as De Gaulle is unwilling to let the United States have a monopoly on nuclear weapons in the West, the Red Chinese are unwilling to let Russia have a monopoly in the East.

Differences between the two Communist giants, growing worse by the year, recently became so bad that the meeting they arranged for next Friday in Moscow to discuss them may wind up in an explosion.

Meanwhile, the United States and Britain had arranged to meet in the same place with the Russians July 15 to discuss a nuclear test ban. There's not much optimism about the outcome of that, either.

A triple dubiety — with the United States, Russia and Red China all distrusting one another — is hardly a happy foundation for a test ban agreement between the United States and Russia, even if one could be reached.

There would still be the Red Chinese to think about.

What Does He Want–Blood?

Foreign Service Called Overcrowded

By Raymond Moley

President John F. Kennedy's foreign pilgrimage, as he was warned before he left the United States, proves to be an exercise in futility. There is little on his agenda to negotiate, and nobody to negotiate with. Two of the heads of state he is meeting will be gone before snow falls. Nobody knows who the boss is in Italy. And President de Gaulle has already said all he intends to say.

I suggest an exercise in keeping with the Kennedy line of duty as chief executive which might be productive. He might sit down with the American ambassadors in the countries he is visiting and discuss their problems of administration.

They could tell him how many people are nominally under their jurisdiction, what those people are doing, if anything, and how many could be sent home or fired without impairing the service.

The President also might consider how much this accumulation of personnel abroad is costing in salaries, in upkeep and in the many new buildings the United States has built or rented to house them.

Finally, he might learn why these confused multitudes abroad are so largley responsible for our confused foreign policy.

AN AMERICAN secretary of state is charged with the immense task of administering the large bureaucracy which serves in Washington and in the ramifications of our foreign service all over the world. But since Charles Evans Hughes and his two successors, Kellogg and Stimson, left the department, no one has really served as an administrator.

Hughes was not only brilliantly successful in diplomacy but was a neat and efficient administrator. He reorganized the State Department and the foreign service in his term of office from 1921 to 1925. He also secured the adoption of legislation which provided for a trained career service.

Until Roosevelt was inaugurated in 1933, things went on pretty well, with a fairly small number of employes who knew what they were doing and who was directing their activities.

However, when Cordell Hull was invited to be secretary of state, he imposed an amazing condition on his acceptance. He said he wanted nothing to do with the actual administration of the department. He wanted to be free to preach his favorite doctrine of free trade.

In those days, when the hitherto unbelievable was the accepted order, Roosevelt agreed. He believed he could operate the State Department, the Treasury, and the Navy along with his multifarious duties as president.

He personally selected the four assistant secretaries of state and the undersecretary. And from time to time he dabbled in State Department affairs in a most confusing manner.

THIS WENT on to the day of his death 12 years later. Personnel proliferation and confusion prevailed.

To make matters worse, after the war presidents, by executive order or otherwise, dumped into the department several jerry-built agencies which had been set up during the war years.

Later the United States poured personnel abroad, military and civilian, for all manner of aid, uplift and other services.

All departments of the government, from foreign aid to the Treasury and Agriculture and even Interior, have large contingents abroad. And, of course, there is the military.

All these assorted people, while carrying out directives from their respective departments in Washington, by tradition come under the general jurisdiction of the accredited ambassador. But he cannot cope with such an accumulation.

These people do about what they choose to do with their sources of information and direction thousands of miles away. When, as is mostly the case, there isn't anything to do, they loaf, enjoy themselves, and waste the taxpayers' money.

Recently it was made very clear indeed that this accumulation of staff grievously impairs the capacity of ambassadors to carry on the work for which ambassadors traditionally have been sent abroad.

It also was made clear that any ambassador, while nominally responsible for all the American personnel assigned to given country, is unble to supervise this mass of people.

THIS WAS brought out vividly in a statement presented to Sen. Henry M. Jackson's, D-Wash., subcommittee on National Security Staffing and Operations.

Ellis O. Briggs, a retired foreign-service officer who has been ambassador to seven countries—the Dominican Republic, Uruguay, Czechoslovakia, Korea, Peru, Brazil and Greece — very vehemently pointed out that ambassadors could operate more efficiently with half the staff. He also said that appeals to Washington to lighten the load of supernumeraries were most often ineffective.

Above the ambassadors is the secretary of state. But since the war all secretaries have been so occupied in traveling from one conference to another and handling matters of high importance with foreign ministers or heads of state that there is no time or capacity to look to the administrative operation of the department.

Thus, our headless and overcrowded foreign service goes its way from crisis to crisis.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — C. H. Smith of Hookstown and Robert Dawson of Smiths Ferry were selected as members of the executive council of the newly-organized branch of the National Federation of Rural Mail Carriers.

Miss Jane Harker of W. 6th St. attended the supreme international biennial convention of the Catholic Daughters of America at Colorado Springs.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — It cost East Liverpool's first blackout violator $56 for his failure to comply with air raid rules and regulations during a Columbiana County blackout.

Members of the Calcutta United Presbyterian Church celebrated the birthday of their pastor, the Rev. George A. Brown, with a dinner.

TEN YEARS AGO — About 100 units participated in a parade at Wellsville during the volunteer firemen's homecoming observance.

Francis Smouse and Joe Bernard were appointed assistant football coaches at East Liverpool High School.

Letter To Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Why is it that every time a Disney movie comes to town the prices for children are doubled?

An unfit movie, listed as so-called adult entertainment, can be seen by our children for the price of 25 cents. But let a family show come to town and the price is doubled. Theaters in other cities have stationery prices. They don't go up at some movies and back to regular to suit the theater owners.

It would make more sense to have regular prices for admission so all children could have the privilege of seeing them. I have seen children leave the line and go to a less desirable movie because the price had been raised and they didn't have the price of admission.

This has been a pet gripe of mine for some time. I am sure I'm not alone in this.

Dice, Yes, Prayer No

By David Lawrence

Confusion Mounts On Court's Ruling

A prominent United States senator was telling his friends this story the other day:

"A public school teacher who entered her classroom after luncheon a few days ago saw a group of small boys kneeling on the floor and huddled together. She asked:

Victor Riesel

" 'What are you doing?'

" 'We're just shooting dice,' was the reply.

" 'Oh,' said the teacher with a sign of relief. 'That's all right. I was afraid you were engaged in prayer.' "

Eleven days have passed since the Supreme Court of the United States issued its 8-1 decision proclaiming that prayer in the school room, whether voluntary or not, is forbidden by the Constitution. Yet the school authorities throughout the country who have sought an explanation of what is or is not permissible have not found the answer.

In the District of Columbia, for instance, the school board, which would like very much to elevate the moral standards of its pupils, finds itself virtually checkmated when the subject of religion is introduced.

In deference to the high court, the board has eliminated the exercises in which readings from the Bible had been carried on for years in the classrooms. But the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, which by act of Congress contains the phrase "one nation under God," was left in the routine.

Col. West A. Hamilton, a member of the board, asked certain questions which were referred to the corporation counsel for reply. One question was as follows:

"May students spontaneously engage in devotional services on their own without direction or guidance from the teacher?"

It was also asked whether the court decision prohibits the holding of school assemblies at which Christmas carols and Easter hymns are sung and whether clergymen can pronounce the benediction at commencement exercises. Another query was this:

"What would be the practical effect if a considerable number of parents demand that time be made available for their children to attend a brief religious service outside the school?"

ANOTHER MEMBER wanted to know if "silent meditation" is permissible.

All these queries indicate the scope of the uncertainty that prevails today.

While New York State has a law which specifies that "released time" may be used to permit students to go to religious exercises outside the school, and the Supreme Court of the United States has upheld such a practice, doubts have been raised now because of the comments in the latest ruling of the high court on June 17.

The court emphasized then that the state government must be "neutral" and that it could not sanction voluntary prayer in the school room and allow students who didn't want to participate to leave the room.

The majority opinion mentioned that the father of a student in one of the cases before the court had decided against asking to have his children leave the school room temporarily "for several reasons, including his belief that the children's relationships with their teachers and classmates would be adversely affected."

Justice Potter Stewart of the Supreme Court, who dissented, said he thought this was flimsy and didn't consider it convincing evidence of the effect of such a step.

NOR IS ANY light shed in a lengthy opinion by Justice Brennan, who, though he "concurred" with the court's decision, expressed himself in a paragraph which should give school boards plenty of mental, if not religious, exercise.

Justice Brennan said:

"We do not, however, in my view usurp the jurisdiction of school administrators by holding as we do today that morning devotional exercises in any form are constitutionally invalid. But there is no occasion now to go further, and anticipate problems we cannot judge with the material now before us. Any attempt to impose rigid limits upon the mention of God or references to the Bible in the classroom would be fraught with dangers."

Justice Brennan quoted with approval a previous decision of the high court which said the Constitution does not "ban federal or state regulation of conduct whose reason or effect merely happens to coincide or harmonize with the tenets of some or all religions." He then added:

"This rationale suggests that the use of the motto 'In God We Trust' on currency, or documents and public buildings and the like may not offend the clause (in the Constitution respecting an establishment of religion). . . . for I suspect there would be intense opposition to the abandonment of that motto.

"The truth is that we have simply interwoven the motto so deeply into the fabric of our civil policy that its present use may well not present that type of involvement which the First Amendment prohibits."

JUSTICE BRENNAN evidently forgot that the petitioners in one of the two cases before the court were avowed atheists. They don't believe in God and, if the effect on them or their children is to be considered, then maybe the motto may have to be taken off the currency and coins.

It's just an example of the "involvement" in perplexity which the Supreme Court's decision has brought to the school boards of the country.

Stay-At-Home Industry

By Joseph R. Slevin

A big candy company wrote the Commerce Department recently and declined an invitation to take part in Stockholm's St. Erik's Fair.

The government asked the candy company to exhibit because it figured that the firm could help overcome the chronic U.S. foreign payments deficit by selling its sweets to the Swedes. But the company begged off with the pleas that its "growing expansion plans for the Continental United States" make overseas markets unalluring.

The candy company reply is one of many similar letters that the department gets whenever it urges American firms to show their products at overseas fairs.

THE UNITED STATES is prosperous. Americans are spending heavily, and many companies do not consider it worthwhile to seek the extra sales they can get in foreign markets.

The Commerce Department invited several thousand companies to show their merchandise at the St. Erik's Fair. It has received 18 acceptances to date and anticipates that a satisfactory cross-section of American products will be on display when the fair opens in August 5.

Refusals have come from companies that say they cannot compete with German and Japanese manufacturers, from firms that complain that Swedish tariffs are too high, and from at least one appliance maker who reports that it takes too long to get Swedish approval of electrical specifications.

Still other companies have written to say they have no use for Swedish currency, apparently not realizing that Krona readily can be converted into dollars.

The Commerce Department is trying to overcome the reluctance of U.S. companies to sell overseas by pressing ahead with a beefedup export expansion program.

The U.S. will participate in 25 foreign trade fairs this year, will give a handful of exclusively U.S.A. fairs in foreign cities, and will open the fifth of a new group of permanent foreign trade centers.

A Trade Mission of American businessmen will leave for a foreign country every few weeks, and 34 Regional Export Expansion Councils will continue to try to stir up enthusiasm among local businessmen.

THE UNITED STATES could wipe out its balance of payments deficit if it increased its exports $2 billion a year—just under 10 per cent.

We now export $4.5 billion a year more than we import but the surplus is wiped out by heavy tourist outlays, large investments in overseas enterprises, and substantial payments for foreign aid and defense.

Officials are unsure whether this year's export figures are good or indifferent. They can't decide because they do not know what impact last winter's dock strike had.

Mishap Hurts Driver, Child

A Wellsville man and his daughter were injured slightly in one of two weekend accidents in Wellsville.

Police said the auto of Clarence Loch, Jr., 25, of 1791 Clark Ave. struck the rear of a car driven by Edison Meadows, 421 15th St., Saturday at 2:30 p. m. on Wells Ave. near American Legion Post 70.

The impact drove the Meadows car into the rear of another driven by Byron Carter, 311 Wells Ave., Wellsville.

Loch told police his daughter, Tracy Lynn, 2½, started to fall and he attempted to catch her. Loch was treated at City Hospital for contusions of the left elbow and the child suffered contusions of the upper gums.

Minor damage resulted to the cars.

A parked car owned by Jim Ryan of Washington School Rd., Newell, was struck by one driven by John W. Lucas of Salineville R. D. 1 Sunday at 1:40 p. m. on Commerce St. near 10th St.

Lucas told police he was forced over by an oncoming car.

Virgil Parson Jr., 2033 Clark Ave., reported to police his car was struck Friday night at 9:30 by an unknown vehicle while parked in front of his home.

Woman Rescued As She Wanders Off River's Bank

An elderly woman who wandered away from a Wellsville nursing home was rescued from the Ohio River Saturday night about 9:30 by an East Liverpool man.

The woman wandered away from the Griffin Nursing Home, 1103 Riverside Ave., and walked along the railroad tracks.

Arthur Thomas Jr., 1009 Avondale St., spotted her while visiting at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Call of Riverside.

Thomas said the woman turned and walked down to the Ohio River as he was watching.

He said he then started after her and by the time he had reached the shoreline, she had waded out several feet. She then fell and went under once before Thomas could reach her.

Thomas dragged her back to shore to safety. In the meantime, others had spotted the woman and the ensuing rescue and notified Wellsville police.

The police returned the woman to the home.

Quad Girls Born To Chicago Pair

CHICAGO (AP) — Quadruplet girls were born to a 19-year-old mother Sunday and a doctor said their chance for survival was excellent.

Ten minutes separated the births of the first and fourth daughters of Dolores Harris. The Negro infants weighed, in order of delivery, 4 pounds 10 ounces, 4 pounds 15 ounces, 4 pounds 14½ ounces and 4 pounds 7½ ounces. They were moved to Michael Reese Hospital's premature nursery soon after birth where all were reported "doing fine."

Mrs. Harris had been given special care by the hospital since March 30 when physicians discovered she was bearing four babies.

"It was more difficult for us because we knew that four children were coming," said her husband, Bernard, 23, a factory worker.

The Harrises also have a son, Shawn, who is 15 months old.

Council At Wellsville Will Study Ordinance

Legislation prohibiting a motor vehicle to be parked unattended with the motor running will be reconsidered at a meeting of Wellsville City Council Tuesday night at 7:30.

The legislation was tabled at the last meeting as some of the councilmen said they understood it was only to cover diesel trucks and not all vehicles.

Council also is expected to discuss a plan for possibly creating the post of parking meter attendant and taking the work away from the police department.

'Brides Of Past' Tableau Presented At WSCS Party

A tableau, "Brides of the Past," featured the annual mother - daughter party of the WSCS of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church Wednesday night in the social rooms.

Mrs. Robert Bickar was narrator; Linda Bickar, and Jennifer White, flower girls, and Carol Board, Susie Badgley and Sandy Collins, bridesmaids.

Vicki Copenhaver modeled a bridal gown worn about 1891 and Linda Rippeth, one from the early part of the 19th Century.

Jean DuPont presented the bridal attire worn by Mrs. Lawrence Black in 1939; Nancy Doland, her mother, Mrs. Thomas Doland's dress at her 1942 wedding; Phyllis McManus, the 1947 dress of Mrs. Bickar; Karen Talbott, that worn by Mrs. Thomas Murray in 1961; Jean Smith, Mrs. Lawrence Boso's gown of 1961; Kathy Hyder, Mrs. Lee Truvalle, 1957; Debbie Banfield, Mrs. Francis Reed, 1957, and Gay Ann Mossman, a bridal costume of 1940.

Mrs. Jack Hyder extended the welcome. Mrs. John Stilts conducted devotions, reading Scripture from Eph. 6: 1-20 and words of the hymn, "Service."

The Rev. John Stilts installed the new officers headed by Mrs. Ralph Badgley.

Roxanna Obenour gave a recitation, "Gratitude," and Ruth Hopper and Denise Rippeth sang "What the Fingers Say." A quartet, Nancy Hopper, Betsy Welker, Christy Manning and Marcie Rippeth, sang "O Promise Me."

Mrs. Ralph Badgley presented rosebuds to Mrs. Leslie Talkington and Mrs. James Obenour, married in June; Mrs. Lee Cooper, the oldest bride; Mrs. Brenda Hiney, youngest bride; Mrs. Dan Smith and daughter, Ellen Smith, eldest bride with eldest daughter present, and Mrs. John Smith and Julia Smith, youngest bride with youngest daughter.

Mrs. Fred Neiser received special recognition as her wedding was the first one held in the church in September 1919.

Refreshments were served at a buffet table covered with a pink cloth overlaid with white maline and centered with a floral arrangement. Mrs. Pearl Hull poured at the silver coffee service and Miss Reba Sprouse, at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Badgley, social chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Elsie Powell, Mrs. Jennie White, Misses Jane and Reba Sprouse.

The program committee consisted of Mrs. Hyder, chairman, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Gloria Rippeth, Mrs. Bickar and Mrs. Badgley.

Mrs. Marjorie Hopper was in charge of invitations and Mrs. George Welker and Mrs. Darlene Boso, the program booklets. Connie Talkington and Linda Mossman were ushers.

NAACP Leaders Ask Rose Parade Equality

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People wants Pasadena's famous Tournament of Roses parade desegregated.

Spokesmen for the NAACP at a meeting Saturday said "discrimination has characterized the Tournament of Roses parade and other events for decades, especially the procedures used to select the rose queen and her court."

The Negroes said "if satisfaction is not given by the all-white Tournament of Roses Association, we contemplate a demonstration of 10,000 marchers in the next parade."

CAVALRY COLORS. Queen Elizabeth II looks serious as she was pictured during the Horse Guards Parade in London when she presented new colors to the household cavalry — the Life Guards and the Royal Horse Guards.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What is the best way to iron pleated skirts?

A. First press the hem on the wrong side, then on the right. Place on the ironing board and pin the pleats, at intervals of three or four inches, to the board pad. Be sure not to catch the fabric where the pins will show. Iron from the top to the bottom of the skirt, removing all pins as you go — not ironing over them.

Q. How can I remove carbon paper stains from clothing?

A. Sponge with carbon tetrachloride. To remove any possible remaining traces of the dyestuff, flush out with a solution of water, detergent, and a small amount of ammonia.

Q. How can I prevent brass from tarnishing during damp weather?

A. You can guard against any invasion of tarnish if, after polishing your brass, you'll rub it with a cloth moistened in olive oil.

Q. How can I set the colors in fabrics?

A. Common table salt is good for setting most colors. But epsom salts are better for washing and rinsing delicately colored materials. Dissolve one teaspoonful of the salts to each gallon of water. The most delicate shades will not run or fade.

Q. How should dark rooms be wallpapered?

A. "The darker the room, the lighter the paper color" is a good rule to follow. If only one wall is dark, you can use a lighter paper on that wall and a darker shade on the other three — this making that part of the room appear lighter.

Q. How can I remove the indelible ink stains of a ballpoint pen from materials?

A. By sponging the spots with cotton soaked in rubbing alcohol.

Q. How can I keep the flues and chimney of my fireplace clean?

A. Dried potato peelings, burned in your fireplace, will do a good job of cleaning the flue and chimney. Incidentally, dried orange and grapefruit peel and rinds are a good source of fuel in your fireplace, and also give off a lovely aroma.

Miss Maxine Davis Weds In East Fairfield Nuptials

Miss Maxine Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Davis of Rogers R.D. 1, became the bride of Larry Harding, son of Mrs. Chester Harding of Columbiana, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the East Fairfield Methodist Church.

The Rev. Melville Wohrley, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of palms, ferns and seven-branch candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews. Miss Ilene Grimm gave a half hour of organ music. Mrs. Richard Moore sang "O Promise Me," "Because" and "Thine Alone."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice. The scalloped scooped neckline featured applique flowers and iridescence. The floor-length bouffant skirt was styled with alternating lace and tulle ruffles and accented with a single rose.

Her double queen's crown of Chantilly lace, enhanced with seed pearls and crystals, held a tiered veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and orchids tied with satin lace streamers. All the traditions were observed, including the sixpence in her shoe.

Miss Ann Davis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald McCord and Mrs. Ronald May. They wore sheaths of aqua taffeta designed with scoop necklines and draped overskirts, accented with self bows. Their matching Dior bows held theater veils and they carried white lace baskets filled with yellow roses and white pompons. White gloves were the gifts of the bride.

Loren Crawford was best man. Ushers were Laverne Kelser, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Michael Hays, his cousin.

The mother of the bride chose a pink taffeta sheath overlaid with white lace and the bridegroom's mother wore a sheath of turquoise chiffon. White accessories and white rose corsages complemented their attire.

A reception for 200 followed in the social rooms under the supervision of Mrs. Nelson Lower and Mrs. John Hawkins. The buffet table was centered with a four-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple, and encircled with white roses. Double-branch candelabra with lighted tapers completed the setting.

MRS. LARRY HARDINS
Rogers Area Girl Is Bride.

Aides were Mrs. Robert Beilhart, Mrs. Laverne Kesler, Miss Judy Stern and Mrs. Michael Hays.

Other guests were from East Palestine, East Liverpool, North Lima, Youngstown, Midland, Salem, Summitville, Sebring, Millport, Salineville, Leetonia, Minneapolis and Rochester, Minn.

For her honeymoon trip to Florida, the bride wore a three-piece beige ensemble with brown accessories and her bridal orchid.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Beaver Local High School and took an IBM course at Penn-Ohio University at Youngstown. She is employed by Summitville Tiles, Inc., as an IBM operator.

Her husband, who was graduated from New Waterford High School in 1958, is a graduate of the Riggs LeMar Institute of Barbering in Akron. He works at Rupert's Barber Shop in Columbiana, where the newlyweds will reside.

Mrs. Kesler assisted the bridegroom's mother with the rehearsal party in the church social rooms.

Mrs. McCord of Summitville was hostess for the pre-nuptial shower with Mrs. May associate hostess.

Mrs. Barbara Radeka of Fisher Ave., East Liverpool, entertained members of the Friendly Eight Club Friday night.

Mrs. Wanda Hanlon, Mrs. Shirley Lingerfelt and Mrs. Sally Duck were winners in 500. Mrs. JoAnn Welch assisted the hostess in serving.

The club will meet July 26 with Mrs. Novella Peterson of Aten Ave.

⋇ ⋇ ⋇

Mrs. Alice Smith led devotions at a meeting of the Mary Hammond Class of the First Methodist Church Friday night in the home of Mrs. Helene Blaney of Fredericktown.

She read a prayer from "The Study of God's Word", Isaiah 53, an article, "Things to be Remembered," and a poem, "What This World Needs." The Lord's Prayer was given in unison. Mrs. Lonee Geisse led in prayer.

A picnic at the Roadside Park was planned for the July meeting.

Mrs. Cora Nickels used devotions for the day from the "Upper Room" when the Mizpah Class of the First Methodist Church met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Frank O'Hara of Commerce St.

Business was conducted by Mrs. Alice Miller, president. Officers elected were Mrs. Miller, president; Mrs. Edna Beatty, vice president; Mrs. Louise Barcus, secretary, and Mrs. Edna Round, treasurer.

The class planned a rummage sale. Contributions are to be left at the church. Guests were Mrs. Helen Henstock and Mrs. Mary Morgan Stull. Refreshments were served 19 by Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Edna Minor and the hostess.

Plans for installation will be made at a meeting of Rock Springs Rebekah Lodge 244 Tuesday night at the IOOF Hall.

⋇ ⋇ ⋇

The Cardettes Club met Friday night at the home of Mrs. Guy Shilling of Pennsylvania Ave. and two tables of 500 were in play.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Dale Melott, Mrs. Vernon Barnes and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan, a guest, and Mrs. Delbert Cooper, travel. Mrs. Ray Shilling of Clearwater, Fla., also was a guest.

The hostess served lunch.

Next meeting is July 26 with Mrs. Charles Strosnider of Grandview.

Survey Set On State, Local Drug Controls

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Food and Drug Administration announced plans today for an 18-month study of state and local food and drug laws and their enforcement.

The study "should bring to light any needed improvement in laws, organization and support for federal-state coordination," FDA Commissioner George P. Larrick said in a statement.

Though meteorites fall anywhere, it is much easier to see them in flat, desert areas, where other rocks are rare. The arid climate and slow erosion rate also favors meteorite survival.

Church Plans Basket Picnic

Members and friends of the Clarkson United Presbyterian Church will hold a basket picnic Sunday at 1 p. m. at the Beaver Creek State Forest Park.

The outing is under the sponsorship of the United Presbyterian Women's Association.

Because of the holiday, a meeting of Clarkson Grange set Thursday has been postponed until July 18. Reuben Lunger is master.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore and family, who visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hole, after spending the winter in Ft. Myers, Fla., have left for a two - week vacation in Maine.

Pins were awarded Dale Williams and Bobby Jack Smith at a meeting of the Cub Scout Pack Friday night in the Rogers elementary school, with 25 attending.

Melvin Aeschbacher, cubmaster, was in charge. A wiener roast featured entertainment.

Next meeting is July 17 at 7 p. m. and a charter will be presented. Plans for future activities will be aired.

Senate

the state and local authorities, but in many areas where even so basic a right as voting is still frequently denied to Negroes, there is no hope in the near future that state and local authorities will act to eliminate this kind of discrimination," he said.

Contending that federal action is "emphatically necessary," Kennedy said:

"How can we say, to a Negro in Jackson (Miss.): 'when a war comes you will be an American citizen, but in the meantime you're a citizen of Mississippi and we can't help you.'"

Kennedy, in testifying before a House Judiciary subcommittee last week, indicated he might be willing to compromise on the public accommodations provision to the extent of exempting small business establishments.

He was called by the Senate Commerce Committee as the first witness on legislation to force desegregation of stores, restaurants, hotels, theaters and other privately-owned businesses serving the public.

This is just one part of the seven-point bill submitted to Congress, but it was introduced separately in the Senate in a strategic maneuver aimed at speeding action.

The complete package, including the public accommodations provisions, has been sent to the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., foe of civil rights measures.

Administration leaders don't expect any fast action by Eastland's committee. But they are looking to the Commerce Committee, under the chairmanship of Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., to move the public accommodations bill along without delay.

Magnuson said in a television interview Sunday that there may be some amendments, such as exempting smaller businesses, but predicted his committee would approve the basic provision of the administration's public accommodations bill.

Once this bill is brought before the Senate, other parts of the president's program could be offered as amendments to it. Or an alternative course would be to wait for the House to act on the whole package and then take it up when it reaches the Senate. Assistant Senate leader Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota has said, "We cannot expect to get through the Senate any bill stronger than that the House votes."

Either way, a Southern filibuster probably will have to be overcome to get the legislation passed. To cut off debate and force a showdown will take a two-thirds majority of Senators voting.

India has more than 800 languages and dialects. About 40 per cent of the population speaks Urdu or Hindi.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What can I do about some paintbrushes on which paint has been allowed to dry and harden?

A. Fill up an old can with vinegar, stick your brushes into this, and then boil the whole thing on the stove for 10 to 15 minutes. Someitmes, in the case of inferior brushes, this will cause some falling of the bristles — but it will soften the brushes enough so that a good washing in soap and water will complete the reconditioning.

Q. How can I improvise some coconut when I have run out of the real thing?

A. Try using some grated raw potato as a substitute coconut. This usually works out real well.

Q. How can I clean glass fiber draperies?

A. Wash them in hot soapsuds or with a detergent, by hand or in a washer — but be sure to remove all hooks and other attachments that might snag them. Rehang them while they're still wet (but not dripping), and straighten the hems gently with your fingers. Glass fiber materials should never be scrubbed during washing, squeezed in a mangle, or twisted. They are never ironed either.

Q. How can I make a good job of washing out dress shields?

A. Lukewarm water and a teaspoon of baking soda should be used for washing dress shields. Rub soap on a small brush, and brush both sides. Rinse in water of the same temperature.

Q. How can I remove axle-grease stains from clothing?

A. Unless the spot contains dirt, carbon tetrachloride does the trick quickly. Should the stain appear rather heavy, lubricate it first with white mineral oil, then flush from the fabric with carbon tetrachloride.

Q. What is a good way to prevent a washed sweater from stretching?

A. Try rinsing it in a colander, squeezing out the excess water gently.

Deaths and Funerals

Death Claims Hugh Nile, 50

Hugh Nile, 50, of Hillcrest, Wellsville, superintendent and purchasing agent of the Sterling China Co. for the last 20 years, died Sunday at 1:15 a. m. at his home following an illness of six weeks.

He joined the company about 1936, working in the laboratory. He was born in Wellsville to the late Harry Nile and Virginia Cartmill Nile.

He was graduated from Mt. Union College in Alliance in 1935, then attended Ohio State University in Columbus for a year. He had resided in Wellsville all his life.

Mr. Nile was a member of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church of East Liverpool. He was a 32nd Degree Mason and a member of the Scottish Rite, Wellsville Masonic Lodge 180 and the Al Koran Shrine of Cleveland. He also was a charter member of the Tri-State Explorers Club.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Reah Miller Nile, and a son, Hugh Nile Jr., both at home; three daughters, Mrs. Gretchen Baldwin of Wellsville, Mrs. Reah Brown of Mansfield and Mrs. Leah Culp of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Mann and Mrs. Grace Haney, both of Wellsville, and three grandchildren.

Private services will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the family residence, where Masonic services will be conducted Tuesday at 8 p. m. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery in Wellsville.

Friends may call at the family residence any time.

The Haugh Funeral Home in Wellsville is in charge of arrangements.

The family requests that material tributes take the form of donations to the Mt. Union College library fund.

Charles Kontnier

Charles F. Kontnier, 59, formerly of Jackson St. and a native of East Liverpool, died Sunday at 6 a. m. at the County Home in Lisbon after a long illness.

He was born July 18, 1903, to the late Charles Kontnier and Stella Perdue Kontnier. He lived here most of his life. He last worked in 1949 at the Homer Laughlin China Co. as a turner. He was a member of the IBOP.

Survivors include three brothers, Eugene Kontnier, Frank Kontnier and Fred Kontnier, all of East Liverpool.

Services will be held Tuesday at 1 p. m. at the Martin Funeral Home by the Rev. N. W. Shirkey, minister of the LaCroft Church of the Nazarene. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Mrs. Bessie Ingram

Mrs. Bessie M. Ingram, 79, widow of J. Arch Ingram, died this morning about 6:40 at the Cummings Nursing home, following a long illness.

A Chester resident most of her life, she had been a patient at the nursing home since 1957. Mrs. Ingram was born in Irondale, Oct. 13, 1883, to the late Homer Thompson and Lucy Farmer Thompson.

She leaves a son, James Arch Ingram Jr. of Chester; a sister, Mrs. Florence Meluch of Cleveland; a grandson, Richard Ingram of Newell, whom she reared, and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Charles Haddock, pastor of the Newell First United Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery, near Chester.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday.

Clifford Burgess

Clifford T. Burgess, 55, of West Union, W. Va., died Sunday at 11:15 a. m. while attending services at the Shirley Church of Christ in Tyler County.

Born in Tyler County Aug. 14, 1908, he was a son of George Burgess and Delphia Haughter Burgess. He resided in Tyler County until moving to Doddridge County last March. He was a member of the Alvy Church of Christ.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Helen Burgess; his father, George Burgess of Middlebourne; three brothers, and nine sisters, including Mrs. Geraldine Elder of Wellsville.

Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the church by Evangelist Ralph Hanlon. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the Furbee Funeral Home in Alma until 12:30 p. m. Tuesday.

David Poole

Services will be held Tuesday for David Poole of Cleveland, a former East Liverpool resident, who died of a heart attack Saturday morning. He was 54.

The rites will be at 10 a. m. tomorrow at the Charles A. Mandley Funeral Home in West Cleveland.

Mr. Poole was employed as a plumber.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Emily Poole, at home; three brothers, Joseph W. Poole of East Liverpool, Ralph Poole of New Brighton and Ted Poole of Lowell, and three sisters, Mrs. Virginia Fulton of Hubbard, Mrs. Myrtle Wharton of Wooster and Mrs. Nellie White of Houston, Tex.

Mrs. Harriet Morris

LEETONIA — Mrs. Harriet L. Morris, 70, of R. D. 1, widow of Chester Morris, died this morning about 8:50 at her home following a long illness.

She was born Feb. 3, 1893 in Winona to the late Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Farmer. She was married March 6, 1936. Her husband died April 13, 1943. Her first husband, Charles A. Brinker, whom she married Oct. 16, 1912, died Oct. 6, 1933. She was a member of the St. Jacob's Lutheran Church on the Salem - Lisbon Rd. She belonged to the Midway Grange, near Salem, and received her 50-year pin this year.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. John Wonner of Leetonia and Mrs. John Stapleton of Orlando, Fla.; three brothers, Ross Farmer, George Farmer and Clyde Farmer, all of Salem R. D. and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Warrick Funeral Home in Columbiana by the Rev. Thomas Rehl, pastor of the Columbiana Lutheran Church. Burial will be in Columbiana Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening.

Warren Steele

EAST PALESTINE — Warren S. Steele, 63, an orchardist, died at his home on 174 N. Market St. at 5:30 a. m. today.

Mr. Steele had been in poor health seven years with a heart ailment. He was born in Wilkesville, Ohio, July 25, 1899, a son of Marion and Dora Reed Steele. He was married to the former Elisa Might Nov. 17, 1922. He formerly was employed at the Simmons Orchards. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving are his widow, at home, and a son, Bundy Steele of New Waterford, and eight grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Van Dyke Funeral Home by the Rev. Thomas Hammerton of the Centenary Methodist Church. Burial will be in Glenview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Girl's Hiccups Go With Sonic Boom

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Officials at Lockbourne Air Force Base here must answer many calls and letters that result from sonic booms caused by jet planes.

So the base Information Office was pleased to receive this letter recently from a Columbus girl: "Tonight I had what seemed like an incurable case of hiccups. Just when I felt like giving up hope, there was an extra loud sonic boom and my hiccups disappeared. Thank you very much and keep up the good work."

Painter, 6-Feet-4, Doesn't Need Ladder

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Painter Fred Schrimpe, 6 feet 4 inches tall, also has 35 - inch arms to help him daub eight - foot high ceilings from the floor with no difficulty.

Schrimpe, currently working on an 18-apartment project, attends to the high spots while two associates take the low rows.

James J. Kane, managing agent for the new apartments, says prospective tenants inspecting the buildings "never fail to make a quick double-take when they see Fred painting ceilings from the floor."

River Hunt Continues For Ohio Mother, Girl

RIPLEY, Ohio (AP)—Searchers still had found no trace today of the body of Mrs. Marilyn Liggett, 27, who, with her three-year-old stepdaughter, Jennifer, drowned in the Ohio River Saturday night.

Mrs. Liggett and the child fell overboard from a boat about 16 miles downstream from here. The child's body was found Sunday.

Mrs. Liggett was the wife of Brown County Prosecutor Richard F. Liggett. Liggett and his two other children were in the boat when the mishap occurred.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What can I do for handkerchiefs that are flimsy and have a generally soiled look?

A. You can often make these look like new by dipping them into starch after washing, then putting them through the rinse water again.

Q. How can I remove corrosion from inside the ferrule of a fishing rod?

A. One easy way is to wrap a small wad of medium-fine steel wool around a dowel chucked into an electric drill, and then carefully run this into the opening.

Q. Is there any way I can clean clear plastic articles?

A. These usually can be cleaned safely with lukewarm water and mild soap, either by brush or by soaking. Only surface stains, however, are removable. Discolorations that have penetrated the plastic are usually in the hopeless category.

Q. How can I quickly improvise a shoe horn when putting on a close-fitting slipper.

A. Lay a corner of a handkerchief into the shoe, grasping the remaining portion of the handkerchief firmly, and using the same as a real shoe horn.

Q. How can I insure more tightly-driven nails?

A. A nail dipped into some colorless fingernail polish, before being driven, will stay put much longer. This also works with screws.

Cement Treatment Advised To Fix Shingles That Curl

By DOUGLAS TUOMYE

Few things make a house look worse than a ragged roof.

Composition shingles have replaced the old standard cedar roof shingles in practically all houses of the development type and are in general use when a reroofing job is called for in older houses.

Although composition shingles are perfectly good, the main trouble with them is that builders commonly use the lightest weight instead of the heaviest. The result is that they lift under strong winds, are easily distorted and are inclined to curl under extremes of weather.

Fixing this condition is a job a reasonably handy home owner can do himself, but we must repeat the old warning that roof work of any kind is dangerous for amateurs, and suggest that whenever you are on a roof you move around on your hands and knees. Never stand upright on a roof, never climb upon a wet roof, and keep off the roof when high winds are blowing.

There is an old saying in the building business that the fewer holes made in a roof the better, so that when it comes to flattening down a roof shingle which has curled up, the best procedure is to cement it down instead of nailing it.

The best time to cement composition shingles is when the roof is bone dry, preferably after the sun has warmed it up for several hours.

Composition shingles are more flexible when warm. The right method is to put two or more spots of roof cement beneath the lifted shingle and press it down flat. About a teaspoonful of cement for each spot is enough. And it should be placed so that any excess will not be squeezed out to make a blot around the shingle edges.

Reds

leaders gathered in East Berlin to celebrate the birthday of East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht, who was 70 Sunday. But as the Red brass assembled, it became apparent the meeting had a more significant purpose.

Albania, North Korea and North Viet Nam have committed themselves openly to Peking. They have endorsed the Chinese view that Khrushchev's efforts to avoid nuclear war with the West have carried him out of the sphere of revolutionary communism.

Addressing birthday greetings to Ulbricht, the Soviet premier praised him for his support of the international Communist movement.

The audience of some 3,000 East Germans cheered enthusiastically when Khrushchev pledged that Germany would one day be united but under communism.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery; Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Clash Opens Gettysburg

One hundred years ago one of history's climactic battles was fought in the rolling countryside outside a small Pennsylvania town called Gettysburg. Here is the way a reporter on the scene might have covered the events which led up to one of the bloodiest military engagements of all time.

By TOM HENSHAW

GETTYSBURG, July 1, 1863 (AP)—Advance units of the Union and Confederate armies clashed by accident around this small South-Central Pennsylvania town today.

The outnumbered Federal forces were driven back into defensive positions on high ground south of Gettysburg, a town of 2,400 some 65 miles north of Washington.

A major battle was forecast for tomorrow as Maj. Gen. George G. Meade, the new commander of the Army of the Potomac, ordered most of his 88,000 men into the battlefront.

The top available strength of the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia, under the command of Gen. Robert E. Lee, is reported to be some 75,000 men.

An estimated 36,000 Union troops and 46,000 Confederates took part in today's fighting, which raged until early evening through the streets of Gettysburg and across ridges and wheat fields west of town.

Losses were high, particularly on the Federal side. The Union 1st and 11th Corps were reported decimated. The Iron Brigade lost 1,200 of 1,800 men. The 24th Michigan suffered 80 per cent casualties.

Maj. Gen. John F. Reynolds, 42, of Lancaster, Pa., commander of the Union forces in the field, was killed by a sniper. Brig. Gen. James J. Archer, 46, a Maryland man serving in the Southern army, was captured.

The fighting began about 5:30 a.m. when the 13th Alabama regiment, advancing on Gettysburg from the west to forage for shoes, ran into a picket post of Brig. Gen. John Buford's Union Cavalry Division.

Buford's cavalry, fighting on foot, held off the Confederate infantry division of Maj. Gen. Henry Heth on a ridge a mile west of town until Reynolds' 1st Corps of Infantry arrived and charged into the fray.

Union artilleryman Augustus Buell described the fighting like thus:

"Up and down the line men were reeling and falling; splinters flying from wheels and axles where bullets hit; in rear, horses tearing and plunging, drivers yelling, shells bursting, shots shrieking overhead, howling about our ears or throwing up great clouds of dust where they struck.

"But not a man or boy flinched or faltered."

Shortly after noon, Maj. Gen. Oliver O. Howard's 11th Army Corps marched in from the south and was immediately engaged by the first units of Lt. Gen. Richard S. Ewell's Confederate corps, coming from the north.

Howard's corps, the smallest in the Army of the Potomac with less than 10,000 men, broke after heavy fighting and fled through the town. A Union officer gave a graphic account of the scene.

"The confusion was great," he said. "The Confederates poured volley after volley into the compact mass (of fleeing men). A sudden panic arose. Our regiment headed into an alley.

"Unfortunately, it offered no way out except a very narrow doorway; but the enemy had already piled up a barrier of dead Union soldiers in its front, and two-thirds of the regiment was lost."

The flight of Howard's corps uncovered the right flank of Reynolds' corps, now led by Maj. Gen. Abner Doubleday, and Doubleday's men retreated to stronger defensive positions on Cemetery Ridge, south of town.

The Union rout was stemmed by the arrival of Maj. Gen. Winfield S. Hancock, 39, of Montgomery Square, Pa., who was sent by Meade to take command in the field after the death of Reynolds.

Tonight, as the two great armies gather for the impending batting, the Union defensive line resembled a fishhook with its shaft running along Cemetery Ridge, its hook turning around Cemetery Hill, where the shattered remnants of Howard's corps awaits reinforcement.

Across a graceful valley, on a ridge called Seminary, Lee is massing his army for the assault.

French Officers See Red In Farm Protest

PERPIGNAN, France (AP) — Riot police saw red Sunday when they tried to stop a farmers' protest parade.

About 2,000 fruit and vegetable growers joined in the demonstration protesting low prices and poor sales.

When police barred the route to the district government offices, farmers pulled up two truckloads of tomatoes and started bombarding the officers. Police retaliated with tear gas.

The farmers also dumped several tons of tomatoes and apricots on the road leading toward Spain. Traffic soon produced a slippery mixture and it took police three hours to sort out the resulting traffic jam.

Crash Of Motorcycle Hurts Lisbon Man, 22

A Lisbon area man was admitted to City Hospital Sunday at 12:05 a. m. with injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident off Shadyside Ave.

Anthony Possage, 22, of Lisbon R. D. 2 is in "good" condition with a possible fracture of the collarbone.

Possage told hospital authorities he was the driver of a motorcycle which went into a ditch near Lake Marwin. Area police had no report of the mishap.

6 Suffer Injury In Route 7 Crash

Six were injured, including five members of an Akron family, in a two-car crash Sunday at 10:10 a. m. a mile north of Toronto on Route 7.

Officers said the crash involved cars driven by Ross T. Starkey, 44, of Sistersville, W. Va., and Joseph Fugo, 43, of Akron.

Starkey went left of center and struck the Fugo car, the patrol said. Starkey was cited for driving while under the influence of alcohol. He suffered a head laceration.

Fugo suffered a possible fracture of the left arm. His wife, Rose Fugo, 42, suffered a fractured left hip, multiple lacerations of the head and fractures of the right ribs. Two daughters, Barbara, 16, and Mary, 8, suffered leg bruises. A son, Joseph, 12, suffered injuries of the left knee and chest.

All were taken to Ohio Valley Hospital at Steubenville.

900 Get New Chester City Driver's License

City Clerk Roy Cashdollar said today about 900 Chester motorists have obtained the new city drivers' licenses, but about 700 still need the permits.

The new licenses are required as of today, he said, adding that the ordinance does not provide for an extension of the deadline. The minimum fine for those not purchasing the licenses is $25, the clerk said.

The fee for the licenses is $2 for the new fiscal year.

Hubby Usually Likes To Aid In Decorating

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Brides and brides-to-be should let their husbands help them in furnishing their homes, suggests Dede Draper, president of the National Society of Interior Designers.

"Homemakers have found that men are taking a more active interest in their homes. Men have a new appreciation for workmanship, now that they've been active in workshops, building and repairing. A few years ago a man would glance at a chair his wife proposed buying. Now he will turn it upside down to see how it is put together, study the dowling, and everything else about it," she says.

Once they are put to the test, you will find men have definite likes and dislikes, and it's good to find it out right away, she advises.

"Most men like blue, earthy tones and reds that aren't too red. They like saddle leather brown, wood and old beams. They like an old feeling in the background, even though they may like the extreme of modern furnishings. Anything that is a conversational item and has a story about it intrigues them, such as a wood from a far-off place or even from an ancient barn," she says.

Men enjoy shopping for furnishings too, once they get interested. And that's a big change from the past, Miss Draper points out.

"They used to think decorating a home was the woman's business They didn't want to get involved. But sometimes now we must hold up a job until the husband gets back from a business trip. Once they get interested, they don't want anything bought when they aren't around," she says.

Many men are prejudiced about antiques until they realize an antique is not a thing that is falling apart — a general misconception —Miss Draper says. Once you explain that a piece of furniture that has stood up 200 years must be pretty good, they begin to have respect for it.

One man who wanted modern furnishings became so impressed with a mahogany Pembroke table that it changed his entire outlook on his home.

"It had that look of faded mahogany, an aged look that can't be duplicated, and he was so fascinated with the look of the wood that he wanted to learn more about old furniture," she says.

One mistake made by women who furnish their homes without the assistance of an interior designer is that they misspend funds, Miss Draper explains. A woman is likely to fall in love with a lush sofa, something she has always wanted, spending $1,200, or half her entire home furnishings budget for it.

"Some women run out and buy wall-to-wall carpet in a brilliant color such as a violent violet, then find too late that it won't go with anything about it. When you take up wall-to-wall carpet, strip it and redye it, the size will change."

It is mistakes like these that have contributed to the rise of interior designers, Miss Draper says. Though many men in the past thought it was a waste of money to hire someone to help do a home, they now see it has advantages.

Besides money - saving techniques in choosing first - things-first furnishings, designers can pass on their knowledge of trends, she says.

"There are changes and trends that are always imminent. Right now the 10-year-beige binge is over; monochromatic color schemes are out; modern furnishings are out; there is more interest in floors with a traditional feeling and English furniture and American Colonial furniture — not the early American rough country furniture."

Relocation Counselor Aids Families On Move

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

It is estimated that seven million families move from one city to another every year. Of these, about 70 per cent must move because of job transfers.

A handful of companies have the facilities to give these transferred employes full assistance in taking care of the countless problems involved in selling their old homes and finding new ones. The other workers must find help elsewhere.

One of those who has the unusual job of giving such help is Diane C. Drake of St. Louis — yet she never sees any of those who benefit from her knowledge!

Diane is known as a relocation counselor and is connected with the American Institute of Marketing Systems, a kind of nationwide clearing house for families on the move. When special, personalized housing problems must be solved, Diane gets the call. Mostly through correspondence, occasionally by telephone, she goes about the business of matching needs with realities.

A typical recent case: a man made good in his Midwestern home town and was promoted to a more lucrative post in New York City. The house he occupied was in a nice, middle-income neighborhood where 60-foot elms shaded his front porch. It was a perfect setting for his aging mother, who liked to sit on the porch and watch the world go by. He insisted that his home in New York must have a front porch—and that it must be a new house.

Diane knew that, in New York's residential sections, houses with front porches are in older neighborhoods. After a considerable exchange of letters, she was able to convince the man that a new house in a suburban development would solve his problem.

The proviso that clinched the agreement was that the house have a rear patio, so that the man's mother could observe community life where it often takes place in New York suburbia — in the backyard.

The three basic recommendations of Diane Drake for a family contemplating a move from one city to another are:

1. — To the extent that it is feasible, a family should consider a home that is possibly substantially different in style from the one that it is leaving. It would seem more likely, at first thought, that a similar home would make the shock of dislocation more bearable. But a similar home invites comparisons, often of a nostalgic sort. A different, exciting new residence, however, provokes eager anticipation.

2. — A family should understand that each community has its own characteristics and that the sooner a family blends into its new background, the happier it will be. If this means living in a nieghborhood where social amenities are different, don't resist change and risk being uncomfortable among your new neighbors.

3. — While making the move, plan for the future. A three-bedroom house may have seemed ample at the origin city and might be sufficient in the new location.

But why uproot the family again when it outgrows three bedrooms? A family-on-the-move should combine the relocation with a plan to provide for future needs.

Army Lets Contracts To 2 Cleveland Firms

CLEVELAND (AP)—Four contracts worth $16.1 million were awarded today to two companies by the U.S. Army's Procurement District in Cleveland.

The Cadillac Motor Car Division of General Motors Corp. here received a $6.6 million contract for flotation devices for T195 and T196 self-propelled howitzers. The other contract to Cadillac was for $5.7 million for pre-production engineering on the XM551, an armored reconnaissance vehicle.

Kaiser Jeep Corp. in Toledo was awarded the other contracts. One, valued at $2.4 million, was for quarter-ton trucks and the other worth $1.3 million, was for platform utility trucks.

CORE Predicts Full Integration Of Jobs, Housing

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—National leaders of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) predict complete desegregation in employment, housing and places of public accomodation and business.

The prediction came amid an air of optimism that marked the closing session of CORE's 21st annual meeting here Sunday.

James Farmer, CORE's national director, told the meeting's 250 delegates:

"We think the majority of Americans at last have been awakened to the urgency of the situation and now are willing to accept immediate desegregation in jobs, housing and places serving the public."

Following the conclusion of the convention, Farmer said Negroes and whites will stage a massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., but it may or may not coincide with a congressional filibuster over civil rights legislation. He said he expected the rally to come late in August.

"A significant number of people from all over the country, both Negro and white, will march through Washington," he said.

"A mass meeting will be held at some appropriate place, perhaps the Lincoln Memorial. We also expect delegates will try to talk to their congressmen."

The national director, who was to be in New York today to start plans for the demonstration, emphasized the action will be without violence because "CORE is committed to orderly and peaceful demonstrations. . . ."

Dayton Child Killed As Car Hits Guardrail

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A car bearing a Dayton family back from Tennessee after attending a funeral left Interstate 75 in southern Montgomery County early today and rammed into a guard rail. A 5-year-old girl was killed and the two parents were injured.

Killed was Belinda Sue Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lomas Barnes. The parents were in Miami Valley Hospital.

Officials said the guard rail penetrated the car behind the driver's door and impaled the back seat on which the girl was asleep.

June Building Permits Soar To $368,175

Start of construction on the new Harker - Metsch nurses' home and training school at City Hospital sent June building permits issued by Mayor Bert H. Goodballet's office soaring to $368,175.

The total is $343,400 above the May figure of $24,775 and is nearly double the $189,000 worth of work started in April.

The Potters Construction Co., which obtained the hospital permit, estimated the cost of $360,000.

Sixteen other permits issued by the mayor's office, all for remodeling work, totaled only $8,175. In addition, one man obtained a permit to raze a garage with the work estimated at $60.

Here are the other June permits, the work authorized and the estimated cost:

Edward Boyer, to install new siding at 633 Riley Ave., $500.

Robert Garner, to erect a porch at 1012 May St., $500.

Richard Davis, to erect an addition to a home at 1634 Park Ave., $500.

Cecil O. King, to remodel windows and doors at 817 W. 9th St., $300.

Potters Construction Co., to remodel storeroom at Holloway Building, 207-11 E. 5th St., $500.

Same, to remodel kitchen at home of Colin Neal, 1801 Anderson Blvd., $500.

Virgil F. Boso, to add room to home at 1668 Etruria St., $500.

Harold Booth, to erect two porches and replace roof at 841 Louise St., $400.

Eugene A. Black, to erect a porch at 2314 Harvey Ave., $500.

J. M. Batey Co., to reroof McCrory Store building at 107 E. 5th St. $750.

Howard Keevert, to install new window in storeroom at 6th St. and St. Clair Ave., $300.

Willard Clark, to install new sidewalk at 670 Riley Ave., $75.

Mrs. Thurman Riggs, to enclose porch at 122 W. Center Ln., $100.

Maxine Clark, to erect a garage at 1054 St. George St., $1,300.

James Elliott Jr., to remodel kitchen at 2137 Ohio Ave., $1,300.

Steve Prodonovich, to rebuild two porches at 830 Mason St., $150.

Tips Are Offered On Preparing Of Walls For Vinyl

Question: We picked up several rolls of vinyl wall covering at a bargain price because of slight imperfections and plan to redo our kitchen walls.

We also bought a special paste for this kind of material. Can you tell us whether the walls have to be treated first?

Answer: Yes, proper wall preparation is necessary. The walls must be washed with a strong ammonia solution and allowed to dry thoroughly before hanging the vinyl covering. However, if the walls have a gloss paint on them, as so many kitchen walls do, they must be sanded or steel wooled before the ammonia washing.

Walls which have decided spots or streaks or sharp light and dark contrasted areas must be given a prime coat of flat paint or covered with a special lining paper. The lining paper also is necessary before applying the vinyl covering to heavily textured walls. This type of material should be butted and not overlapped.

Pentagon Plan Offers Novel Outdoor Room

PORTLAND, Ore. — Lots of homes have a narrow side yard which, at first glance, looks absolutely good for nothing. But this might be the perfect place for an outdoor living room.

It doesn't take much space to create a charming open air room when you use a wood deck as a base because the deck can be tailored to match the space available—and interestingly.

For example, you might try a pentagon shape in the side yard which will at once eliminate that long, narrow strip effect. It can be elevated slightly to correspond with the level of interior floors. Steps leading off at either side will provide access to and from back and front yards.

The only extra work in building a pentagon, or other intriguing geometric shape, comes in laying out the underframing. This may take a little figuring with pencil and paper, but it's worth the bother. Fir deck boards, 2x4 or 2x6, can be laid in the usual manner — parallel to the house walls —and the ends imply sawn off to fit the shape desired.

Even though the deck might be close to the ground, a perimeter railing is in order to emphasize its unusual shape. This could be a rather open pattern, however—just widely - spaced 2x4 posts topped with a cap board.

On one or two sides of the pentagon, the rail might also incorporate a bench for permanent seating space. Low cedar planting boxes could be built along the balustrade edge on other sides to create a miniature, colorful garden.

If privacy is a problem in the side yard, substitute privacy screens for the balustrade where needed. A fairly tall screen designed with louvers or spaced 1x2s will do the trick, yet not interfere with air circulation or produce an enclosed feeling. Plastic panels, mounted in wood frames, window style, are another good possibility for privacy screens.

When the side yard is so narrow that a pentagon or trapezoid shape deck seems impractical, some home owners have turned the liability into an asset by designing an intriguing series of rectangular deck platforms joined together by short runways. In this case, a tall fence has been used to provide privacy to the area, and spaces between deck platforms are filled in with ground cover or shrubbery.

Summer Puts Squeeze On Small Water Tank

Summer's soaring temperatures can put a real strain on the water heater in your house, especially if it's under-sized.

Of course, water heaters don't shrink, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, of Chicago, but families grow, an extra bathroom is added to the house and new water-using appliances are installed.

Such changes can, in effect, make it seem that the water heater has, indeed, 'shrunk'.

Add hot, humid weather to these altered conditions and chances are, the bureau points out, that the water heater in your home is functionally under - sized.

During the summer, there is more frequent bathing by all members of the family. Usually, the amount of laundering increases. There are more children's soiled play clothes and additional adult wash and wear garments. Finally, other hot water requirements remain about the same. Hot water is needed for cooking, washing dishes and for other household chores.

The minimum realistic size for any home water heater is 40 gallons. If yours is a smaller type, a change is in order. If you're building a new house, it makes good sense to anticipate increasing demands.

A major problem with an under-sized water heater is corrosion. This happens when water is too frequently drawn from the tank. The inside surfaces corrode because they are over-exposed to dissolved oxygen. Pushed beyond capacity, the inadequate water heater wears out rapidly.

For a few dollars more in the purchase price, a properly-sized water heater will not only provide adequate amounts of hot water at all times, it will also have a longer life. This saves the home owner money in the long run.

You Can Keep Cooler With A White Roof

White has become a very popular color roof paint in the last few years as householders have learned that interior temperatures can be reduced as much as 20 degrees by painting a dark roof white.

In addition to greater comfort, this can help reduce electric bills because air-conditioners have less work to do.

Tests conducted by the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association in Washington show that white paint is more effective for this purpose than either natural or pastel aluminum paint, but both of the latter brought about significant heat reductions. Be sure to use a non-chalking paint to prevent the body of the house from being stained.

Since solvents used in oil paint will dissolve asphalt and cause ugly staining and bleeding, use exterior white latex, that is, water-thinned paints, on roofs made of asphalt-felt, asphalt shingles or other materials containing this product. Asbestos-cement shingles and other roofing material containing cement should not be painted with oil paints, since oil is attacked by the alkali in cement. Instead, use exterior latex paints, swimming pool paints, or other coatings meant for masonry.

Galvanized metal roofs should be primed with zinc dust-zinc oxide paint, or another primer meant for this metal, particularly one rich in zinc chromate. The top coat can be any non-chalking exterior white paint.

Tin - coated roofs should be given a coat of anti-corrosive metal primer before the white paint is applied. Wooden shingles can be painted with any non-chalking exterior paint. To prevent the shingle stain from bleeding through the white, a coat of exterior aluminum paint is advised as a primer.

Remember that the life of any paint on any horizontal or nearly horizontal surface is shorter than on vertical surfaces. Two coats will last longer than one and do a better hiding job. To save your back, apply the paints with a long-handled roller or with a paint sprayer.

Since the paint, as just noted, will have a shorter life on a roof, it is especially important to use only a quality paint, which will retain its whiteness and stand up under the buffeting of the weather and the heat of the sun.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Prominent academic and profession leaders in real estate and related fields will conduct the annual Real Estate Institute at Ohio State University July 8-12.

Dr. Halbert C. Smith, director of the Institute, said the week-long session sponsored by OSU in cooperation with the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards "promises to be the highest-level professional program in the country".

Among the faculty are: Dr. Henry E. Hoagland, OSU professor emeritus and former member of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board; Ralph F. Yeager, president of Robert Cline Residential, Inc., and Carl A. Mayer, president of Theodore Mayer and Sons, Cincinnati; Dr. Alton F. Doody, OSU professor of marketing; Dr. Robert J. House, OSU professor of management; Drs. George S. Goodell and Ronald S. Foster, professors of finance, and Dr. Smith, who is professor of real estate and finance.

Class - conference sessions will be conducted, allowing maximum participation by Institute members. Informal evening sessions will make exchanges of ideas possible between faculty and participants.

The Institute is comprised of two one-week sessions to be held on successive summers. Successful participants are awarded a certificate in real estate from OSU.

Additional information on the Institute may be obtained from Dr. Smith at OSU.

Rain, Winds Slap Areas Over Ohio

By The Associated Press

Sporadic thunderstorms accompanied by lightning and wind hopped around the state Sunday afternoon, flooding streets and knocking out power in some areas.

Rainfall amounts varied widely, according to the Weather Bureau, and while a particular area was drenched, another area only a mile or two away was untouched.

The Weather Bureau gave these official rainfall amounts: Port Columbus Airport .18 of an inch, Dayton 1.26, Cincinnati .1, Cleveland Municipal Airport none, Akron .02, Zanesville none.

But the Weather Buraeu said that the various thunderheads responsible for the storms showed up on radar as measuring about three miles in diameter, and while the Weather Bureau station at Port Columbus showed only .18 of an inch, another part of the city could have had an inch or more.

A thunderstorm in the Dayton area knocked out electrical service to many areas, particularly in Kettering and Miami Township.

Columbus, too, had power failures ranging in duration from 10 minutes to six hours.

No injuries or deaths due to the storms were reported.

Car Victim Claimed

CLEVELAND (AP) — Henry Smith, 65, died in St. Vincent Charity Hospital Sunday of injuries received June 4 when he was struck by an automobile near his home.

Girl Devises Chair For Palsy Victims

MIAMI (AP) — A teen age girl has devised and built a "therapeutic chair" for young cerebral palsy victims.

"I spent over 200 hours and $50 from my savings in making it," said Harriet Carter, 15.

The chair, mobile with four rollers, is equipped with pedals, vibrators and hand and body massaging devices to improve blood circulation.

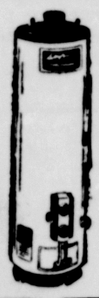

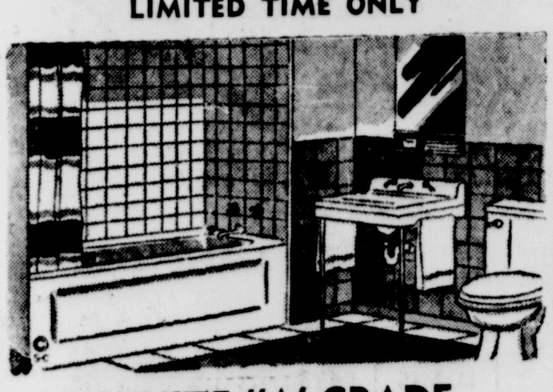

Modeling clay and a blackboard on an extended table are designed to help the handicapped child learn coordination.

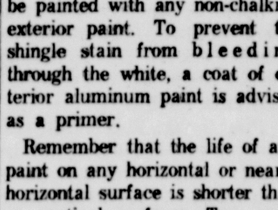

Harriet got the ideas while visiting the Hospital of Special Surgery, New York City, and the Cerebral Palsy Clinic, Miami. She donated the chair to the palsy clinic.

The Moslem warrior, Saladin, furnished ice to cool the tent of a fever-ridden enemy eight centuries before air conditoning was invented by an America, Dr. Willis Carrier.

Roberts Should Remember Loss To A's

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Robin Roberts will stop sobbing softly o.er there in the corner, we will discuss what the Boston Red Sox learned over the weekend about how to beat the New York Yankees.

First, they learned that Yogi Berra's .186 batting average does not indicate that he can't hit any more.

Then they learned that you do not give the Yankees four outs in an inning. And you definitely do not give them five.

And Robin's problem?

Well, Roberts has pitched in 573 major league games but the one he is likely to remember in the wee hours of the morning when sleep comes hard, is the first game of Sunday's Baltimore-Kansas City double header.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Yankees Sweep Pair From Bosox

Roberts went 13 1-3 innings in muggy heat, left with one out in the 14th, a runner on second and the score tied 1-1. Meanwhile, his Oriole mates had left 13 men on base.

A walk, a ground out, and then reliever Dick Hall served a two-run single to Doc Edwards. The 3-1 loss was pinned on Roberts. The Orioles struggled 12 innings in the second game to win 4-3.

The Yankees pasted the Red Sox twice, 4-2 and 11-4, and may have buried any pennant hopes that lurked in the Boston breast. The double win gave the Yankees a two-game American League lead, and dropped the Red Sox 4½ games back.

The second place Chicago White Sox split, dropping the opener to the Cleveland Indians 8-4 for their third straight loss, before winning the second game 4-2.

The Minnesota Twins won their seventh straight 6-2 over Washington, and Detroit trimmed the Los Angeles Angels 6-5.

Old Yogi, now 38 and used mostly as a coach and pinch hitter this season, slugged a three-run homer in the first inning off Red Sox starter Bill Monbouquette for all the runs the Yankees needed. The Red Sox got nine hits off Whitey Ford—who won his 12th and ninth straight decision—and reliever Hal Reniff who came on in the seventh. Monbouquette, who had won nine straight, and Arnold Earley held the Yanks to five.

Although the Red Sox stranded nine men in the first four innings of the second game, they had a 2-1 lead in the Yankee fourth. With the bases loaded, Boston first baseman Dick Stuart let Tony Kubek's two-out grounder go through his legs for a three-run, three-base error.

In the seventh, the Red Sox messed up a foul pop by Roger Maris, who promptly singled, and then Chuck Shilling made his second error of the season on a two-out grounder. Four runs followed.

Two-run homers by Max Alvis, Mike de la Hoz and Woody Held powered the Indians in their opener. Dick Donovan lost a shutout in the ninth.

Gary Peters pitched a seven-hitter in the second game for his fifth victory, and third over the Indians. Pete Ward had two hits including his 10th homer and Tom McCraw singled home two runs for the White Sox.

Minnesota held onto third spot, 2½ games back, as Camil Pascual and Mike Fornieles teamed for the victory. Pascual left after three innings when his arm stiffened. He had not pitched since June 12 because of a muscle strain in his right shoulder, but he fanned five of the 10 batters he faced before he left. Jimmie Hall's three-run homer was the big blow. The A's didn't get a hit until the seventh.

Dick McAuliffe hit a lead-off homer in the ninth off Los Angeles relief ace Julio Navarro for the Detroit victory. For the Angels, Leon Wagner had a good day in the field, hit his 19th homer raised his batting average to a league leading .351 and his RBI total to 57.

YANKEE VETERAN Yogi Berra catches a face full of dirt as he dives head first at the plate to avoid a tag by Red Sox catcher Russ Nixon. An error by first baseman Dick Stuart on Tony Kubeck's bounder allowed three runs to score. (UPI Telephoto)

Dairy, Medics, Millirons Win In Little Loop

Golden Star nipped Travelers, 5-4, in an eight inning contest' Millirons whipped Veterans, 1-5 and the Medics toppled Burbick's, 11-9 in Little League action Saturday.

Bill Montgomery, who under Little League rules was only permitted to pitch six innings gave up five hits and fanned 14 batters. He also collected two doubles and a single to lead his team at the plate.

Jack Barrett drove in the winning run in the last of the eighth inning. Flint and Hancock had two hits each for Travelers.

Tom Chambers pitched and batted the Medics to victory knocking Burbick's out of a possible tie in the second half. Chambers hit a two-run homer in the fifth inning to provide the winning margin.

Nelson Clark led the losers with two hits.

Kim Kimeple hurled a three hitter for Millirons while John Cunningham came up with two hits.

Cleveland Event Goes To Playoff

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Prses Sports Writer

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—National Open champion Julius Boros hit a ball out of bounds on the sixth hole in the third round of the $110,000 Cleveland Open tournament and the miscue turned the golf world topsy-turvy.

The errant shot, only one that went out of bounds in four days, caused Boros to take a two-over par seven on the hole, cost him $17,683.33 in cash and prevented him from setting a new annual money won record.

Had Boros scored a par 5 on the hole which is considered almost a certain birdie, since the pros usually reach the 511-yard green in two strokes, the National Open king would have won the $22,000 top prize and there would have been no need for today's 18-hole playoff for the title between Arnold Palmer, Tony Lema and Tommy Aaron.

Boros birdied the same hole easily in the fourth round Sunday, reaching it with two wood shots as he scored a 65 on the par 71 Beechmont Country Club course in a valiant effort to win. He fell one shy, however, as Palmer and Lema scored 68s for 273 totals, 11 under par, and Aaron birdied the last four holes for a 66 to get into the deadlock.

In today's 18-hole extra heat, the winner picks up $22,000 and the two others get $8,550 each. Boros received $4,316.67 as he tied Sam Snead and Jack Burke at 274. It ran his year's earnings to $63,996.

Aaron, 26-year-old Gainesville, Ga., golfer, who reached the finals of the 1958 National Amateur, has never won a tournament in his three years on the tour.

Lema, a 29-year-old ex-Marine who served in Korea, has been a pro since 1955, but created no furor until the last three months of 1962 when he won $20,000.

Palmer, of Ligonier, Pa., is golfdom's "Mr. Everything."

This is Palmer's third straight playoff. He won the Thunderbird Open in overtime two weeks ago and lost the National Open the same way.

Central Tops Lawyers, Florists, Realtors Win

The league leading Lawyers became 5-3 victims of Central Service in an upset in the Colt League while Riverview Florists blasted Johnson's Pontiac, 15-3 and the Realtors edged the Dentists, 3-2 Sunday.

Dave Chetwynd limited the Lawyers to only three hits as his Central teammates backed him up with a big five - run fifth inning. Walker was checked with the loss.

Riverview scored in every inning but the fourth to defeat Johnson's as Tom Williams pitched a brilliant one - hitter. Massey belted a triple for the only hit off the Florists' pitcher.

Sanford, Vaughn, Sayre and Newlen each collected two hits for the Riverview nine.

The Realtors scored all three runs in the first inning on four hits and an error then hung on to defeat the Dentists.

After the first frame, Rick Calhoun pitched hitless ball for the Dentists but the damage was already done.

Ron Kinsey blasted a pair of doubles and Johnson had two hits to lead the Dentists as Snowden was the big gun for the Realtors with a single that drove in two runs. Jim Hissom was the winning pitcher.

Roberts Presents Great Effort In Losing Battle

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP)—Robin Roberts added another fantastic chapter to an already fabulous baseball career Sunday.

But all the veteran Baltimore Oriole right-hander got in return for his efforts was another loss on his pitching record.

The 36-year-old Roberts allowed only eight hits while hurling 13 1-3 innings in 89-degree weather, made doubly scorching by a soaking humidity of 72 per cent.

But the inability of his teammates to hit in the clutch gave Kansas City a 3-1 decision in 14 innings. Worse yet, Roberts wasn't in the game when the Athletics pushed across the winning runs on a two-out single by Doc Edwards off reliever Dick Hall.

Baltimore Manager Billy Hitchcock took Roberts out after Jerry Lumpe opened the 14th inning with a single and moved to second on a sacrifice.

Prior to that, Roberts had given up only two hits during the last seven innings. After Ken Harrelson doubled to open the 10th, he retired 12 batters in a row.

Meanwhile, the Orioles left 13 runners stranded—seven of them in scoring position.

Roberts was impassive as usual but he didn't linger long after the game.

Kath Whitworth Finishes Strong To Take Crown

BROOKVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth stole a page from Arnold Palmer and won the $10,000 Ladies PGA Carvel Open Golf Tournament by wiping out a seven stroke deficit in the last round Saturday.

The 23-year-old lass from Jal, N.M., capped her garrison finish by sinking a four-foot putt for a par four on the last hole in the final round of the 54-hole tourney over the Tam O'Shanter Club course.

That gave her a one-under-par 71 for a 217 total to edge Marilynn Smith, of Tequesta, Fla., by one stroke for the first prize money of $1,350. Miss Smith had a final round 77.

Dodgers Stopped By Young Hurler

By The Associated Press

It's hard to figure Hector (Skinny) Brown, who has bounced around the baseball world with indifferent success since he broke in as a kid pitcher in the Piedmont League 17 years ago, as a history-maker.

But the 38-year-old right-hander has his claims to fame.

Only two major league games ever have been played on Sunday night—and Brown has won them both.

Pitching masterfully in the clutch, Brown spun a seven-hit shutout at Houston as the last-place Colts edged the National League leading St. Louis Cardinals 1-0 Sunday night. That doubled his victory output for the season. His other one came in a 3-0 decision over San Francisco on June 9—when Houston inaugurated after-dark play on Sunday.

Brown's pitching and a run-producing single in the fourth inning enabled the Colts to beat the Cards for the first time in eight meetings this season — and post only the second victory in their last 14 games.

However, the Cards maintained their 1½-game grip on first place —with the aid of Milwaukee's Tony Cloninger. The young right-hander fired a two-hitter and faced only 28 men in the Braves' 7-0 romp over the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers.

Also in the NL—the San Francisco Giants climbed to within two percentage points of Los Angeles, beating Cincinnati 7-3 as southpaw Billy Pierce won for the first time since April 16; Pittsburgh's Bob Friend and Al McBean combined for a three-hit 3-0 decision over the New York Mets; and Philadelphia shaded the Chicago Cubs 3-2.

Cloninger got his chief hitting support from Hank Aaron, who has been battering Dodger pitching this year, and Roy McMillan. Aaron smacked his 22nd homer and a single, giving him 16 hits in 30 at-bats against Los Angeles this year, and McMillan drove in two Milwaukee runs with a homer and double.

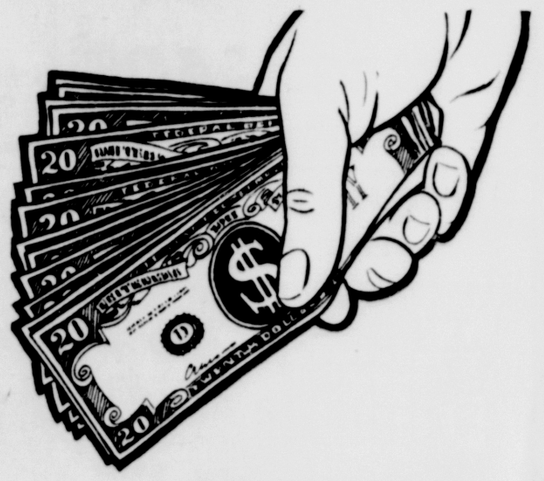

Friend made his personal record 7-for-7 against the Mets, yielding only two singles before retiring after eight innings in the muggy heat at Pittsburgh. McBean finished, giving up one more single.

The Phils took a 2-0 leap over Cub loser Larry Jackson on four straight singles in the second inning and got their decisive run in the seventh when Tony Gonzalez doubled and Frank Torre singled. Art Mahaffey won it with relief help from Johnny Klippstein.

Willie McCovey's 18th homer in the sixth inning at San Francisco off Jim O'Toole snapped a 1-1 tie between the Cincinnati ace and Pierce. The Giants then rushed across five unearned runs in the seventh against Al Worthington, the last three riding in on Willie Mays' homer.

Pierce, now 2-5, yielded eight hits to the Reds, including a two-run homer to Eddie Kasko in the ninth. O'Toole, who had permitted only two hits before McCovey's homer, took his fifth loss against 13 victories.

Greatest Strikeout Artist?

Koufax, Fanning 1 An Inning, Puts Dodgers In Pennant Race

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

It is not unusual to see 10 strikeouts in a game when Sandy Koufax pitches for the Los Angeles Dodgers. At the age of 27 the Brooklyn - born southpaw is on the verge of becoming the greatest strikeout artist of his time.

When he fanned 10 Houston Colts in a 3-0 three-hit victory on June 13 it marked the 45th time he had whiffed 10 or more opponents. He holds the league record in this respect and when he reaches 54 games with 10 strikeouts or more he will have matched the records of Bob Feller and Rube Waddell.

THE HANDSOME left hander, born in 1935 two days before the new year, looks like a cinch to join the select circle of 20-game winners. Last July 1st he had a 2.14 earned run mark and was chosen for the National League All-Star team. The season wasn't even half over.

But from July 12, he was practically useless to the Dodgers due to a numb index finger on his pitching hand. He pitched only five more times and allowed 12 earned runs in less than 10 innings and was charged with three defeats.

THE DODGERS began fading and what happened is baseball history. The Giants finally caught the Dodgers and beat them in a pennant playoff.

The Dodger front office had no pitcher on their farms ready to fill the gap and the pennant loss was listed as a front office boner.

Manager Walt Alston showed some enthusiasm in spring training when he said:

"I have every reason to believe Koufax will be winning for us again."

AND WIN again Koufax did, even when the Dodgers were hitting like the Mets.

On June 17 Koufax turned in his most important victory of the first half. He blanked the San Francisco Giants, 2-0, on three singles. Not only did he knock them out of first place but he turned in his sixth shutout of the season and made his record 10-3 with 111 strikeouts in 116 innings.

HE BEGAN the season with 1,168 whiffs for 1,132 innings and now is well on his way to his third straight 200-plus strikeout season.

As far back as 1955, right after he signed off the University of Cincinnati campus for a $20,000 bonus, including a first-year salary of $6,000, Roscoe McGowen, then the dean of Brooklyn Dodger reporters, wrote that Koufax was coming of age.

ACTUALLY, Sandy spent much time on the bench during his first two years because of the bonus rule. Even in 1958 when he won 11 decisions he was wild. He set a record that year with 17 wild pitches.

But as early as his second start, in 1955, Koufax showed his strikeout ability. He fanned 14 in a 7-0 victory over Cincinnati.

Koufax actually came of age as a pitcher in 1961. He led the National League in strikeouts with a record 269 and compiled an 18-13 record. He also climbed above the .500 average in decisions, closing out the year with a 54-53 overall mark.

THE EARNED run champion of 1962 (2.54) looks like a cinch to win 20 game this season. But Koufax would rather take a hand in pitching the Dodgers to a pennant they should have won in 1962.

"The biggest thing is maturity," Koufax has said. "I guess mentally I'm better and I have a better attitude."

—:—

WHEN HE loses he never whimpers because he knows things balance out in the end. He completed eight of his first 14 starts this year. One of his three defeats was a 1-0 setback to Joey Jay of the Reds. Another time the Dodgers got him one run off Juan Marichal of the Giants. His other first half defeat was 5-4 to Houston.

Since 1961 Koufax has been averaging more than nine strikeouts a game. In the last two years he has turned in no-hit games over the Mets and Giants.

At the rate he is going Sanford Koufax promises to keep the Dodgers fighting for the pennant.

MVP Award Is Presented By Campbell

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The first test of the pro football rookies of 1963 points to eight as good bets to make the grade.

They are Hugh Campbell and Kermit Alexander of the San Francisco 49ers, Lee Roy Jordan of the Dallas Cowboys, George Saimes and Daryle Lamonica of the Buffalo Bills, John Mackey of the Baltimore Colts, Pat Richter of the Washington Redskins and Bill Nelsen of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

On the basis of their showing in Saturday night's All-America game won by the West 22-21 over the favored East, Glynn Griffing of the New York Giants, Thunder Thornton of the St. Louis Cardinals, Larry Ferguson of the Detroit Lions, Dave Robinson of the Green Bay Packers and Ray Mansfield, Ronnie Goodwin and Nate Ramsey of the Philadelphia Eagles also appear to have plenty on the ball.

The list is long because the game was remarkably well played considering the 81-degree heat in the steam bath that was War Memorial Stadium.

A crowd of 20,850 turned out for the contest, co-sponsored by the American Football Coaches Association and the Buffalo Evening News.

Hugh Campbell, the Washington State whiz who led the nation in pass receptions for three years, was voted the most valuable player for catching eight passes for 108 yards and two touchdowns. His last TD catch in the final period, plus Mansfield's conversion, won the game for John McKay of Southern California, the 1962 college Coach of The Year.

Nelsen threw two touchdown passes, completing 11 of 27 for 162 yards.

Jordan, Alabama's fine linebacker, shored up the East line and should make the Dallas club a fine defensive star. He was the best tackle in the game.

The Buffalo fans were thrilled by the work of Saimes, the Michigan State fullback, who topped them all with 86 yards in 16 carries. He suffered a rib injury late in the game.

Lamonica, the 1962 Notre Dame quarterback, was held out at the start due to injuries, but opened up with the pro-type long bombs when he got a chance to throw. He hit Willie Richardson, a future Baltimore Colt from Jackson, Miss. State, with a beautiful 28-year TD pass.

Laver Remains Victim Of Rosewall In Tennis

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Look at the record and it's obvious why Ken Rosewall reigns as the king of pro tennis.

Rosewall, adding the U.S. Professional Lawn Tennis Championship to his 1963 collection, has compiled a 32-9 record in matches with Rod Laver this year enroute to sweeping four professional titles in the United States.

The tiny Australian won the regular-season segment of the U.S. pro tour, then the tour playoffs and two weeks ago took the Adler Invitational pro tournament in Los Angeles.

On each occasion, Laver was the runner-up. Rosewall conquered Laver, 5-3, on the round-robin tour. Then he crushed the rookie left-hander, 14-4, on their man-to-man playoff tour. He defeated Laver in the final of both pro tourneys.

In addition, Rosewall held an 11-2 edge over Laver in their matches in Australia and New Zealand in January. At the time, Laver was being touted as "The World's Greatest Player" following his 1962 amateur grand slam and Davis Cup conquests.

"All the pros were anxious to prove that, while Rod was good, he wasn't the greatest," said Rosewall Sunday after he defeated Laver 6-4, 6-2, 6-2 in the final of the four-day tourney at historic Forest Hills Stadium.

The $1,400 first-prize money pushed Rosewall close to $50,000 in earnings this year, high among the pros. Rosewall also split $800 with Laver for their triumph in the doubles. They teamed to defeat Earl Buchholz, Jr., St. Louis and Alex Olmedo, the Peruvian now living in Los Angeles, 7-5, 10-8 7-5.

Perranoski Is Greatest Find For Dodgers' Staff

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The acquisition of Ron Perranoski by the Los Angeles Dodgers may have been one of their luckiest speculative investments.

The Dodgers just reached into a hat three years ago and out came Perranoski, an unknown Polish boy.

The 26-year-old left-hander has won nine games in relief and has an outside chance of surpassing the major league record for most victories by a relief pitcher in one year. Pittsburgh's Roy Face set the record in 1959 when he won 18.

The Dodgers got Perranoski from the Chicago Cubs. There have been deals transacted with trading stamps that attracted more attention.

The Dodgers agreed to give the Cubs infielder Don Zimmer. Chicago, in return, presented the Dodgers with a list of five players from which they could select three.

The Dodgers picked infielder John Goryl, outfielder Lee Handley and Perranoski.

The Cubs, suspecting perhaps that they could be prosecuted for fraud, also threw in about $25,000.

Since he joined the Dodgers in 1961, Perranoski has won 25 games and saved 31 others. He has lost 13. In 257 innings, he has allowed only nine home runs, an average of less than one every 28 innings.

Sergeant Of Police Never Forgets Voice

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—When a woman called police to report a wild party in the house next door, it was her bad luck to get Sgt. Dewitt Deason.

After listening to her complaint, Deason sent one officer to break up the party and another to arrest the caller.

He had recognized the voice as that of a bail-jumper who had been wanted by police for six months.

Deason answers so many calls that his ear has become delicately tuned to the human voice. As others never forget a face, he never forgets a voice.

The bald eagle mates for life and returns annually to its huge nest.

Seeding Committee Rapped Over Guesses At Wimbledon

By GEOFFREY MILLER

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—The seeding committee of the All-Tennis Championships is under criticism for its seeding of the players.

With the Wimbledon tournament swinging into the final half today, eight seeds in the men's singles are left to fight out the quarter-finals. They are Roy Emerson of Australia, the favorite, second seeded Manuel Santana of Spain, and Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., seeded fourth.

The other five were toppled during the first four rounds.

The seeding committee is never 100 per cent popular. Now the critics contend that stars like Rafael Osuna of Mexico and Ramanathan Krishnan of India should have been seeded for rightful places in the quarter-finals.

The classic match of the tournament thus far was the third round duel between Santana and Osuna. Santana won in five sets after a brilliant display by both players.

Seedings are based mainly on players records in this year's major tournaments—notably on the Australian and European circuits.

Osuna didn't play on either — hence his omission from the seedings.

The women's seedings were a bit more successful. Six of the eight—Margaret Smith of Australia, Mrs. Ann Jones of Britain, Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., Jan Lehane of Australia, Maria Bueno of Brazil and Renee Schuurman of South Africa—are in the quarter-finals.

Couple Receives $80,000 Award In Property Case

A Columbiana County Common Pleas Court jury at Lisbon deliberated until nearly noon Saturday before returning an $80,000 verdict for Frank and Opal Bosco of East Liverpool in a State Highway Department land appropriation case.

Joining in the landowners' appeal from the state's offer were John C. Fultz, who leases the Blue Top Restaurant, and the Ashland Oil & Refining Co., which has a station on the 13.19 acres taken for the improvement of Route 30.

The verdict allowed $48,620 for land, $11,380 for buildings, and $20,000 for damages to the residue of the property. The total is $15,000 more than the state's original offer, but $5,000 less than it offered just before the case went to trial last Monday.

Testimony ended Friday afternoon and Judge Joel H. Sharp directed the jury to return Saturday.

Beaver Garden Club Hears Local Woman

Mrs. Edwin Kountz of East Liverpool was guest speaker at a meeting of the Beaver Local Garden Club Wednesday afternoon at the Rogers Methodist Church. She also judged several floral arrangements.

Mrs. Norren Andretta led devotions. A contribution was made to the Beaver Local school fair.

Amvits Upset Cumberland In Softball

The Amvits upset league leading New Cumberland to throw the Chester City Softball League into a scramble.

New Cumberland scored its lone run in the first inning and John Clendenning blanked the leaders the rest of the way hurling a three hitter.

Jack Thayer's home run provided the only scoring for the losers. Wilbur Staley, Jim Eckstein, and Jerry Murawski had two hits each for the Amvits.

Hancock Reports 11 Auto Mishaps

Hancock County sheriff's deputies investigated 11 traffic accidents in June — six less than in the preceding month — and made 41 arrests in the 30-day period.

The 11 accidents involved 18 vehicles and resulted in injuries to three persons. There were no fatalities. Property damage was estimated at $12,450.

The office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny served 110 court papers and rolled up 8,461 miles on the cruisers. Deputies made 41 arrests and confined 18 persons in County Jail. Thirty - six prisoners were released during the month, with nine still in custody.

State Police from Weirton, New Cumberland Police Chief William Webster and Weirton police confined five persons each in jail, while Chester police confined one and county constables, four.

One juvenile was cited before Juvenile Officer John Grossi.

It's Oyster Industry Is All 'Clammed Up'

NORTHPORT, N.Y. (AP) — Long Island's oyster industry is at an all-time low, with Northport alone losing five million dollars annually because drills, polynics, and starfish have literally sucked the life out of the shellfish business.

The tiny, tail-pointed drills, which look something like snails, drill holes into the shells of oysters and suck out the meat; the polynics, purplish snail - like creatures about two inches across, do the same; and in deeper waters, starfish carry on. Laboratories and oyster "greenhouses" are experimenting with remedial measures.

Mishap Involves Ambulance, Car

No one was injured in two weekend accidents investigated by the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

An ambulance driven by Glenn Swaney, 44, of 48 W. North Ave., East Palestine, and a car driven by Betty Hostetter, 16, of East Palestine R. D. 1 were involved in a collision Saturday at 12:50 p. m. on Route 14 about two and six-tenth miles east of Route 7.

Officers said Miss Hostetter was slowing to make a right turn into a private drive and her car was struck in the rear by the ambulance. Swaney was cited for speed in excess of conditions. The ambulance is owned by the Van Dyke Funeral Home of East Palestine.

Cars driven by Harry Kelly, 60, of Sharpsville, Pa., and Dorothy Bartholow, 46, of 122 Sherman St., Lisbon, were damaged in a collision Sunday at 2:10 p. m. on Route 164 a mile south of Columbiana.

Mahoning Man's Car Strikes Tree, Mailbox

LISBON — Village police said the car of Angelo Costello of Youngstown struck a U. S. mail box and a big sycamore tree at 6:30 p. m. Saturday on E. Lincoln Way in front of Lepper Library.

Costello did not stop, police said, but witnesses gave them the license number and they got in touch with him later.

Officials Begin Weirton Terms

WEIRTON — Officials in the new administration of Mayor Frank A. Rybka who will operate the city for the next four years took office today following swearing-in ceremonies at one minute past midnight Sunday in the City Building.

The oath was administered by Judge Ralph E. Pryor of the 1st Judicial District.

Rybka unseated David T. Frew to win a four-year term as mayor in the non - partisan municipal election June 4.

His new appointees included Edward Frankovitch, police chief; John Vujonovich, city solicitor; Thomas Koumaros, city treasurer; and Atty. Martin Bogarad, municipal court judge. Reappointed were City Manager Ed D. Ewing and City Clerk Paul Chuma.

The oath also was administered six new Council members and one incumbent, Peter Sokolowski. The first meeting of the new Council is slated July 8.

In 1844, the first major study of the Gulf Stream was begun by Benjamin Franklin's great-grandson, Alexander D. Bache, for the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey.

Jurors Selected In Hancock Case

Selection of a petit jury was underway this morning in Hancock County Circuit Court at New Cumberland for the third trial in a civil suit filed by a Chester couple in a traffic crash four years ago at the bottom of the Route 30 grade in Chester.

The office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny has summoned 43 prospective jurors for the case. One trial ended in a mistrial and the second trial reportedly ended in a hung jury.

William and Grace Wedgewood, 338 Louisiana Ave., name as defendants the Eclipse Motor Lines of Columbus, Earl Moore, operator of the firm's tractor-trailer rig, and Leo K. Eberhart of Chester.

In their petition, the Wedgewoods claim they were passengers in an auto operated by Eberhart that was involved in a collision with the rig May 27, 1959, at the foot of the grade.

The rig, loaded with 50,000 pounds of steel coils, apparently lost its brakes while coming down the grade.

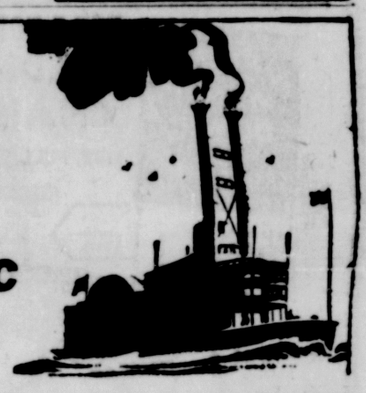

Judge James G. McClure will preside for the trial.

Old-fashioned eggnog still makes a fine mid - morning snack for youngsters. Use a well-beaten egg and a couple of tablespoons of sugar to a cup of milk and add a little vanilla. A little freshly grated nutmeg over the top adds delightful aroma and flavor.

'Open House' Draws 300 At Legion Home

More than 300 attended the public "open house" held Saturday afternoon at the newly - rebuilt American Legion Post 70 home in Wellsville.

Over 200 attended the dance and program for members and guests Saturday night. Charles Sanfillipo's orchestra played. A radio broadcast of the event was held from 11 p. m. to midnight.

Mayor William Daugherty was master of ceremonies. Members of the building committee and post officers were introduced and spoke briefly.

Guests included Bert Keck of Columbiana, commander of the Columbiana County American Legion Council, and Al Hayes, past county commander. The post received about 12 baskets of flowers from well-wishers.

A buffet luncheon was served by the auxiliary. The Hillcrest Floral Shop provided the centerpiece for the table and A. & J. Florists provided planters for the room dividers.

William Powell, commander, announced a "key system" will be used for entrance to the new post. Keys were presented members of the building committee as gifts. The keys are numbered and Joe Ammon received No. 1.

Guests were from New Waterford, Columbiana, Newell, Chester and East Liverpool.

The post will meet tonight at 8.

The 10 plagues of Egypt, just prior to the emancipation of the Hebrew slaves, as related in the Book of Exodus in the Bible, were waters turned to blood, frogs, lice, flies, murrain on the cattle, boils upon human beings, hail, locusts, darkness, and the death of the first-born in each Egyptian household.

'Rustlers' Slaughter Cow On County Farm

LISBON — The Columbiana County sheriff's department is investigating the theft of half a hiefer Sunday afternoon at the Roy Amon Farm on Speidel Rd., two miles west of Route 9.

He reported he heard a shot about 2:30 p.m. and later in the afternoon discovered half the carcass of one of his Holsteins in the open field.

Amon said someone cut the 750-pound animal in two and took only the hindquarters.

Hammondsville

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Heiney have returned after visiting Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Young and family of Gaithersburg, Md. They were accompanied by two daughters, Robin and Susan. Robin returned Saturday from City Hospital, where she underwent a tonsillectomy Friday morning.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I address myself to the woman who calls herself a doctor's wife and signed her letter "Amazed at Your Ignorance."

I wish someone would remind these doctors' wives who are afraid their husbands might get a call at home that they chose the profession because they wanted to help people.

The same goes for ministers. I'm sick of hearing wives of doctors and clergymen complain because they are inconvenienced at odd hours.

We wonder why mental problems are on the increase. One reason may be that ministers and doctors no longer are available for consultation. They avoid you like the plague if they think you want to discuss a problem. People have no one to talk to any more — and their troubles grow into illnesses.

Yes, I know there are psychiatrists and analysts but they have no place in the beginning — only after people are too sick to get help elsewhere. And not everyone can afford treatment.

So please tell these so-called "humanitarians" that service means putting the needs of others first. If they don't want to be bothered, let them do something else and stop calling themselves doctors and ministers. — PITTSBURGH CITIZEN.

Dear Pittsburgh: It is grossly unfair to put all doctors and clergymen in the same barrel and tar them with the same brush. I know many doctors and clergymen who are dedicated to public service. I'm sorry you don't know them, too—your life would be incomparably richer if you did.

Proud Of Success

Dear Ann: Last winter I went on a strict diet and lost 45 pounds. I wouldn't enter a "Miss Universe" contest but my figure is vastly improved and I'm proud of myself.

I have not owned a bathing suit since I was 9 because I was so fat I refused to be seen in one. Of course I don't know how to swim. Would it be ridiculous for me to buy a suit this year and go to the beach?

My mother says it's a crazy idea. She claims it's the same as carrying a racket when you can't play tennis. Do you agree with her? — EX-HIPPO.

Dear Ex: No. Buy a bathing suit, go to the beach and get someone to teach you to swim.

Confidentially

BACK TO WALL: Why not make him a deal? Agree to let your hair grow back to its natural shade if he will agree to shave off his mustache. (I have a hunch you'd both look better.)

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

U Thant Hits Rumor

LONDON (AP)—Secretary-General U Thant of the United Nations flew to Amsterdam today en route to Hungary and Bulgaria. Before leaving he denied through an aide that a call girl ring is operating at U.S. headquarters in New York.

Auto Of Lisbon Man Damaged By Flames

LISBON — A car motor broke into flames at 12:35 a.m. today on N. Beaver St. and caused undetermined damage to a 1956 sedan owned by Elmer Donnalley Jr., 306 Pritchard Ave.

Donnalley said he and his wife, Sadie, and seven relatives were returning from a visit in Ellsworth and stopped for the traffic light at W. Lincoln Way.

He said the motor stalled and smoke began pouring from the hood. He got everyone out then ran to a service station across the street to call the fire department.

Donnalley and station personnel had the fire out when the fire truck arrived. The flames burned off the wiring, radiator hose and fan belt.

Palestine Moves Its Radio Center

EAST PALESTINE — Four police and fire operators started duties today at the new location of the radio equipment in the mayor's office at City Hall.

The equipment was installed over the weekend. The equipment was removed from the home of Mrs. Grace Peirce, 93 Alice St., the former operator. She retired effective today after 16 years' service with the city.

The switchboard and radio will be manned by Mrs. Lucille George, who will continue as welfare director, Brown Lawrence, Robert Roderick and Thomas Woods.

Lawrence is a retired paint company employe. Woods is a retired potter and Roderick is a former night watchman at the Pittsburgh Chair Co.

They will work eight hour shifts. Their salary will be $150 a month, according to Mayor Robert Harding.

Anyone wanting police of firemen call the main headquarters and the operator then relays the message.

If you like sweet baking powder biscuits, add a couple of tablespoons of sugar to a two-cup flour recipe. The sugar may be sifted along with the flour, baking powder and salt. The French usually serve sweetened biscuits and sometimes enrich their dough with an egg.

Mishap Hurts Man's Thumb In Pizza Shop

Sixteen persons injured in various mishaps were treated at City Hopital over the weekend. Twelve were treated Sunday and four Saturday afternoon and evening.

Those injured Sunday included John Wallace, 20, of 1924 Clark Ave., Wellsville, who cut his right thumb on a slicing machine while working at Nick's Pizza Shop in Wellsville.

Mrs. Rosalie Mey of near Chester cut her right hand while washing dishes.

John Watkins, 16, son of Harry Watkins, 1068 Bank St., cut his left foot on a piece of glass while swimming in the Ohio River.

George Michael, 10, son of Max Michael, 1669 Ohio Ave., suffered closed fractures of both wrists when he fell from a tree.

Emery Swartz, 7, son of Emery Swartz, 971 Church St., cut his right hand when he fell on glass.

Deborah Curtis, 6, daughter of Chester Curtis of Westfield, suffered a laceration of the right large toe and brush burns of the left foot when she caught her foot in the spokes of a bicycle wheel and fell.

Colin Garvey, 7, son of Kent Garvey, 409 Grant St., suffered lacerations of the right knee and abrasions of the right forearm in a bicycle accident at home.

Mrs. Margaret Poe, 728 Seward Ave., cut her right hand on glass at home.

Gary Webb, 10, son of Gerald Webb of Negley R. D. 1, cut his foot when he stepped on a sharp rock in Beaver Creek.

Dennis Horger, 16, son of Dale Horger of R. D. 2, suffered contusions and a sprain of the left knee while playing basketball.

Lester Lunger of Mud Ln., Calcutta, cut his right index finger on a fan belt.

Those injured Saturday included Mrs. Elva Adkins, 561 Carolina Ave., Chester, who suffered a cerebral concussion when she struck her head on the door of an ice machine while working at the Shamrock Grill.

Mrs. Mary Daniels, 727 E. 4th St., suffered an open fracture of the left thumb when she caught it in a car door.

Ralph Ash, 8, son of William Ash, 419 Azalea Ave., received a small laceration of the right little finger when he caught his hand in a car door.

Robert Myers, 10, son of Hubert Myers, 515 Louisiana Ave., Chester, was cut on the upper lip when struck with a camera while attending church camp at Tomlinson Run State Park.

Doubt Grows For Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Ohio House members voiced doubt today that Congress will pass President Kennedy's tax reduction bill this year.

Rep. Clarence J. Brown, R-Ohio, said indications from the leadership of both the Republicans and Democrats are that chances of passage of a tax cut bill before Jan. 1 are questionable.

Thomas L. Ashley, D-Ohio, expressing the same doubt, said Congress was "strangled by its own ineptness."

Both Brown and Ashley said the civil rights controversy, which may tie Congress in knots later in the session, is one of the main reasons for the possible delay in tax legislation.

Brown, a member of the House Rules Committee which must clear bills to the House floor for action, indicated that the Rules Committee will not block the tax bill if the Ways and Means Committee completes action on it.

As to his own views on Kennedy's proposal to reduce taxes by a net of some $10 billion over a three-year period, Brown said he believes "the first responsibility is to reduce government spending."

"We should not go out and spend more with resulting deficit financing," Brown said.

There is no question, Brown said, that the upcoming battle in Congress over civil rights will have its effect on passage of other important legislation.

New Session Opened At Area Church Camp

About 54 young people are attending the Junior High II camp this week at the Beaver Creek United Presbyterian Camp at Grimms Bridge.

The Rev. Moss Rutan of Mingo Junction is director and the Rev. Ray Eichler of Warren is assistant.

Counsellors include Mrs. Eichler, Howard Ludwig and Tom Brettell of Mingo Junction, Phil Hoffman and the Rev. Bruce Davis of Wellsville, Miss Miriam Aiken of East Palestine, Eldon Trubbee of Minerva and Miss Charlotte Moore of Vienna.

Area Man Appointed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Robert Lyons, 43, of Steubenville, Ohio, has been named general manager of sales in the Midwest Division of the National Steel Corp. Lyons succeeds Oscar V. Johnston, 50, named assistant vice president for sales in the Central Division office.

Boy Escapes Uninjured In Bike's Crash

A 5-year-old East Liverpool boy escaped unhurt when his bicycle and a truck collided Saturday at 5:15 p. m. at Jackson St. and Church Alley, police reported.

The bicycle ridden by Mike Anthony Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gill, 314½ Jackson St., collided with a 1962 model truck operated by Fredrick Yonz, 28, of 1076 Rubicon St. and owned by Ray Clendenning of W. 8th St., officers said.

Yonz told police he was driving south on Jackson St. about 15 miles an hour when the boy on the bicycle came out of the alley in front of the truck. He said he applied the brakes and the boy's bicycle struck the front bumper of the truck.

Three more weekend collisions were investigated by local police.

A mishap Saturday at 3:50 p.m. on Market St. 25 feet south of 3rd St. involved a 1956 two-door sedan driven by William J. Snodgrass, 23, of 713 Orchard Grove Ave. and a 1963 four-door sedan operated by Morris E. Briggs, 50, of 110 W. Center Ln., officers said.

Two cars were involved in a minor collision Saturday at 6:18 p. m. on the parking lot at the A. & P. Supermarket on Walnut St., officers said.

The crash scratched the bumper of a 1954 car driven by Jack V. Glover, 38, of Hammond Park Addition, Wellsville, and damaged the headlight and left front fender of a 1962 car operated by George Tullis, 54, of Belmar Ave., officers said.

A collision at Pennsylvania Ave. and Slate St. Sunday at 2:42 p.m. damaged a 1956 coupe driven by Ralph Kelly Jr., 39, of 2032 Chester Ave., Wellsville, and a 1961 two-door sedan operated by Adolfo Frank, 39, of 1610 Globe St., officers said.

Meanwhile, George Edward Giles, 60, of 14th St., Wellsville, reported to police he was the other driver involved in a collision late Friday night at Pennsylvania Ave. and Mulberry St. with a car operated by Curtis Vernon Akers, 21, of 813 Lincoln Ave.

Giles said the back end of the car operated by Akers swung around and struck his car as Akers turned south onto Mulberry St. There was no damage to his car, Giles said.

Akers had maintained the other motorist pulled out of Mulberry St. and hit his car. When he went to telephone police, the other driver left, Akers had reported.

Outing Arranged For Scout Troop

Boy Scout Troop 28 of the Calvary Methodist Church will hold a family picnic Monday, July 8, at 6:30 p. m. at Thompson Park.

John Parsons, Wayne Boley, Ben Weber, Paul Grafton and Dick Skelton, members of the troop committee, will be in charge. A court of honor will be held after the meal. Lawrence Bickel will be in charge, assisted by Robert Davidson.

Plans for the picnic were made at a committee meeting Thursday night at Grafton's camp at West Point. Grafton is chairman.

Mike Silliman was appointed institutional representative to succeed Wilford Padgett. A report was heard on the last three camps the boys have attended. The unit took first place for its camp site at the district camporee.

Weber presented the secretary's report. Bickel won a prize. Refreshments were served by Grafton.

German Reds Harass East Berlin Visitors

BERLIN (AP)—Weekend visitors from West Germany to Communist East Berlin were harassed by Red border guards, West police reported today.

West Germans who had day permits for visits with friends or relatives were questioned for up to five hours, the police said.

Communist authorities made no special difficulties for people entering East Berlin. The trouble started when the visitors began streaming back to the West.

Jail Term Given To City Motorist

A city man was fined and jailed after pleading guilty today in Municipal Court to a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and a hearing for a Newell motorist on a same charge was continued until next Monday.

Another city motorist had his license suspended for 20 days in the 12 traffic hearings held by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Charles Madison Welling, 42, of 809 W. 8th St. was fined $200 and costs, and was sentenced to five days in the city jail when he entered the guilty plea to the drunken driving count.

—:—

JUDGE CHERTOFF also suspended Welling's license for three months. Welling was cited at 4:45 a. m. Saturday on old W. 8th St., police said.

A hearing for Jesse Triplett Jr., 21, of 409 Jefferson St., Newell, on a similar charge was continued until next Monday at 9 a. m. Triplett was cited Friday at 4:30 p. m. after an accident on Broadway near E. 3rd St. His bond of $507.50 was continued.

Rodney Eugene Gilkinson, 18, of Box 399 had his license suspended for 20 days and was ordered to pay the costs after pleading guilty to a reckless driving charge.

Police cited Gilkinson at 8:58 p. m. Sunday on the Community Parking Lot on Walnut St., alleging he was circling the lot at a high rate of speed, then pulled on E. 6th St., stopped for a traffic signal and then "peeled" his tires turning south onto Walnut St. In making a right turn into Potters Alley, Gilkinson nearly upset his car before turning back onto the lot, police said.

WHEN questioned by Judge Chertoff, Gilkinson declined to offer any reason for his action.

William C. Murphy of New Cumberland R. D. 2 was fined a total of $100 and costs on charges of failing to yield the right-of-way to an emergency vehicle and reckless driving.

Murphy, who was cited at 2:06 a. m. Sunday on the River Rd., pleaded guilty to both charges.

A hearing for Ernest Kelly, 1236 Harker Ave., was continued until next Monday on a charge of driving without an operator's license. His bond was set at $100.

KELLY pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone but sentencing was delayed pending disposition of the other charge. His bond of $17.50 also was continued. Kelly was cited Friday at 9:08 p. m., police said.

Richard Grogg of 1st St., Newell, was fined $25 and costs after pleading guilty to a charge of reckless driving on June 23. Police said Grogg drove at a high rate of speed down Broadway, swung wide to pass another car and nearly struck parked autos.

Denver Sprouse, 1056 Jennings Ave., and Michael F. Oprendek of the YMCA were fined $10 and costs each after pleading guilty to speeding charges.

SPROUSE was cited at 10:43 p. m. Friday on Elizabeth St. for traveling 45 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone and Oprendek was cited at 8:07 p. m. Friday on W. 8th St. for speeding 50 miles an hour a 35-zone.

Frank M. Sankey of Bethel Park, Pa., was fined $5 and costs after being convicted of crashing a traffic signal at E. 4th and Washington Sts. at 10:15 a. m. today. He pleaded innocent.

Samuel J. Laneve, 554 Campground Rd., forfeited a $52.50 bond on a reckless driving charge filed by Wellsville Patrolman P. D. Daniels. The charge alleged that Laneve backed his car onto Shadyside Ave. early Saturday at a high rate of speed and failed to stop for a siren and flashing red light.

—:—

MICHAEL M. Stefanik of Conneaut and James H. Popovich of Akron forfeited bonds of $17.50 each on charges of passing over a yellow line on Route 30. Both were cited at 11:35 p. m. Friday by the State Highway Patrol.

Josephy K. Klein, 1059 Monaca St., forfeited a similar bond on a charge of speeding 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." He was cited at 9:17 p. m. Friday.

William Francis O'Neill Jr., 22, of 330 E. 8th St. and David Bruce Zelch of Louisville, Ohio, formerly of East Liverpool, are due for hearings Tuesday at 9 a. m. on speeding charges. They were cited at 3 a. m. Sunday on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. by the State Highway Patrol for traveling 75 miles an hour. Each posted a $17.50 bond.

Attack, Robbery Hurt Georgetown Resident

Harry Beck, 43, of Georgetown is in "fair" condition in City Hospital today with contusions of the face, nose and left eye suffered when he reportedly was beaten and robbed of about $2 in front of his home early Sunday morning by three young men who picked him up as he was hitch-hiking home from East Liverpool.

Beck reported the incident to Virgil Septer of the Hookstown police, who said there are no clues to the identity of the three men.

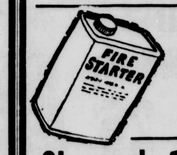

Council Session Set

NEW CUMBERLAND — Town Council will hold its first meeting of fiscal 1964 Tuesday night at 7:30 in Town Hall. It also will be the first session under new Mayor Welty M. Vulgamore Jr., who was elected June 11. Mayor Vulgamore and new Council members received the oath last week.

Trustees Get Fund Reports

A report on the money received from the tax settlement for the first six months' collection was presented by Simon C. Hall, clerk, at a meeting of the Liverpool Township Trustees Saturday morning at City Hall.

The collection totaled $15,966. Of this, $2,091 went to the general fund, $10,388 to the road and bridge fund and $3,700 from the fire levy.

The trustees will advertise for a public hearing on the township budget at the next meeting July 12.

A report from the state examiner was accepted by the trustees. The books, which had not been audited for four years, were covered up to Oct. 26, 1962. No findings against the clerk were reported. The auditor reported the books in "very good" condition.

The fire report for April showed the volunteers answered seven calls. There were no fire losses.

The trustees approved two more streets for "chip" work. They are Hollywood Ave., off Dewey Ave., and part of Homewood Ave.

Bill Mangano requested approval of a new plot he plans to open on Shadyside. The trustees will visit the area this week.

A request was received for improvements to Homestead Ave. in LaCroft. The trustees also will check this.

Harry Hill presented a deed for a strip of land to widen Hampton Rd. from 40 feet to 50 feet. This is in preparation for the opening of a new section. All the other streets in the section are 50 feet.

Bills were ordered paid.

9 Killed By Bombings In Sicilian Gang War

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — Nine persons were killed over the weekend in booby-trap explosions that may have been set by warring gang lords of the Sicilian Mafia.

The booby traps were TNT-loaded cars. The victims were two garage workers and seven policemen. Both explosions took place in a Palermo suburb regarded as a Mafia prowling ground.

Man, 30, Dies As Auto Falls

Roy Edward Holland, 30, of Toronto R.D. 2, was pronounced dead on arrival Sunday at 8:20 p. m. at Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville with injuries suffered a short time earlier when a jack gave way and allowed his auto to fall as he worked underneath.

Mr. Holland was an employe of the Union Clay Co. at Empire. The accident occurred about 7 p. m. at his home.

Mr. Holland was born in Port Homer April 30, 1933, son of Mrs. Evelyn Hood Holland, who now resides in Empire, and the late Lynn Holland. He attended the Sugar Grove Methodist Church, near Empire.

In addition to his mother, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Alline Holland; two daughters, Barbara Ann Holland and Beverly Holland, and a son, Gary Holland, all at home; two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Waggoner of Toronto R. D. 1, and Miss Margie Holland of Empire, and two brothers, Cecil Holland of Toronto R. D. 2, and Ronald Holland of Empire.

Friends may call at the Clarke Funeral Home in Toronto after 7 tonight. Other arrangements are pending.

2 Drivers Penalized By Salineville Mayor

SALINEVILLE — Two motorists were fined for reckless operation at hearings Saturday afternoon before Mayor Stanley Fitch.

John Madison, 37, of Mechanicstown R. D. 3 was fined $15 and costs and James P. Anderson, 22, of Alliance R. D. was fined $20 and costs.

Madison was arrested June 23 after his car hit a utility pole on W. Main St. and Anderson was cited the same day after his car hit a parked auto on Main St.

Women Realize $300 From Sale In Calcutta

Over $300 was realized from a sale of household articles sponsored by the City Federation of Women's Clubs Saturday at the Calcutta Grange Hall.

Proceeds will go toward purchase of hanging floral baskets for use throughout the business district.

The few items that were not sold will be turned over to the local Salvation Army today.

The event was sponsored by the town improvement committee, of which Mrs. Faye Wright is chairman. Mrs. Nessie Dunlop is president.

The first ship that arrived in New York under the tariff act of 1789 was the brigantine Persis which had sailed from Livorno, Italy, on Aug. 5. The miscellaneous cargo was consigned to William Seton, who paid $774.71 in duties.

Continuance Granted For City Assault Case

A hearing for Paul Baker of Beaver Falls, formerly of East Liverpool, on an assault and battery charge was continued today in Municipal Court until Friday morning.

Baker was held on an affidavit filed by Richard Grogg of 1st St., Newell, alleging the Beaver Falls man fractured his jaw when he slugged him while both were being held in city jail on June 23.

Baker entered an innocent plea to the charge when arraigned June 24 before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Only two players have achieved the "grand slam" of tennis by winning the Australian French, Wimbledon, and U. S. titles. They were Don Budge of the U. S. in 1938 and Rod Laver of Austraiia in 1962.

At White Sulphur Springs

Refractories Institute Names Winston Porter

WINSTON A. PORTER
Picked At Annual Meeting.

Winston A. Porter of Armstrong Ln., president of the Globe Brick Co. of Newell, was elected president of the Refractories Institute at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors and members at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., which ended over the weekend.

Frank Cashin, president of Kaiser Refractories at Oakland, Calif., was elected vice president, and F. H. Laube, president of the Freeport Brick Co. of Freeport, Pa., was named treasurer.

Avery C. Newton, executive secretary, was returned.

Porter will head the organization's efforts to promote the demand for refractory products and to develop new uses for them and to conduct research to improve processes and products of the industry.

Other objectives of the institute include collection, compiling and distribution of information relating to the industry and confering and co-operating with government agencies and other groups in the interests of the public and industry.

The institute's offices are located in the First National Bank Building at Pittsburgh.

Porter, 43, a native of Kenilworth, is a graduate of Duke University, a member of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, a director of the Potters Savings & Loan Co. and the First National Bank, the Rotary Club of East Liverpool and the Duquesne Club and University Club of Pittsburgh. He has been widely active in civic affairs.

He is married to the former Bonnivere Sue Russell, and they have a son, Winston Allen Porter Jr., and a daughter, Candace Sue Porter.

Continuance Set In Fraud Charge

A hearing for an East End man charged with defrauding a North Side resident was continued indefinitely today in Municipal Court.

The continuance of the charge against William R. Howell of Price St. Ext. was requested by Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark.

Howell was named in an affidavit filed by Albert Flickinger of Orchard Grove Ave., now recuperating from a fractured leg, who alleged the East End man did not fulfill a written contract for $570 worth of work.

Howell pleaded innocent when arraigned before Acting Judge Paul Tobin on June 7 and the case was continued until today.

Nominees Endorsed

BEAVER — At its second quarterly meeting Friday in Aliquippa, the Beaver County Democratic Committee unanimously endorsed all countywide and local candidates nominated at the primary. Commissioner Eli Corak of Midland presided.

Students And Jobs Need Human Touch

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The director of the University of Oklahoma's Employment Service says students and jobs can't be matched up with electronic devices using punched cards.

Leonard D. Harper, criticizing recently announced plans by the U.S. Employment Service on computerizing job-seeking college students, said "the service has to be more personalized.

"The personnel in the service has to know the type of student and his attitude," he said. The mechanical system "leaves little room for individual differences."

At the mouth of Chesapeake Bay, a crossing 17.6 miles long from Norfolk is scheduled to open early in 1964. Never before has man spanned such a long stretch of exposed navigable ocean water. This will consist of a novel combination of tunnels beneath the main channels, medium-height bridges over minor channels and low - level trestles over the rest—all at a cost of approximately $140 million.

Fruit And Vegetable Supply In District Due To Increase

The second half of summer will bring fresh fruits and vegetables to the district in larger supply and better variety, according to Ed Watkins, market information agent with the Agriculture Extension Service in Canfield.

Fruit choices this week are quite varied with an increasingly large selection of quality products at resonable prices. Watermelon is in the most abundant supply during July and prices are beginning to reflect this abundance. With retail prices down to 69 cents for the smaller sizes, this fruit will be one of the popular choices over the Fourth.

Cantaloupe is not yet generally in the lower price range, but the quality on this product is the best of the season. More melons are nearer maturity and have a desirable melon taste.

Apple supplies are at the low point of the year with some West Coast Delicious and Winesap and a scattering of Lodi and Transparents from the southern edge of the apple producing area.

A good variety of Southern grown peaches is available in the medium price range. Peaches should remain in good supply through the rest of the month.

Lemon supplies are much below average but the greatest supply is available this month. Oranges are limited to those from California. The California crop is a little larger than last year, and a little smaller than two years ago.

Bananas, although less abundant than in June, remain as one of the major sources of fresh fruit. New crop grapes from California and Arizona including Perlettes and Cardinals, are coming down into the medium price range.

Economical selections for fresh vegetables include cabbage, greens, celery, carrots, potatoes, radishes, tomatoes and green onions. Both field grown and greenhouse tomatoes are widely available although the end of the spring crop of greenhouse tomatoes is approaching.

Fresh green peas, although not a major item, are now about as reasonable in price as anytime during the year. Recent hot weather will reduce the amount of this product during the coming weeks.

Head lettuce is largely unchanged in price. Cucumbers are up in price a little. Peppers are largely unchanged in price in the 7-10 cent range depending on quality and size.

Other quality selections for fresh vegetables include a variety of new potatoes such as cobblers, reds and long whites, yellow straight neck and acorn squash and sweet corn. The local sweet corn crop is a little behind the normal time schedule but should begin by the middle of the month.

Economical choices for meat and meat type dishes are quite varied. With egg prices at a low level, this item is one of the money saving choices this week.

You can use your pastry blender to chop eggs!

Long Session Looms Ahead In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress completed the first six months of what may be a year-long session by taking a week off for Independence Day flag-waving and oratory.

After a half year of sporadic labors, it has little to show except a stack of unfinished business.

The official "status of major legislation" reads like the line score of the Washington Senators in an American League baseball game. It lists the enactment of four public laws, one extending the draft law, one authorizing procurement of aircraft, missiles and naval vessels, and two appropriation bills.

The seeming snail's pace does not appear to alarm congressional leaders.

Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, the Democratic House whip, summed up their sentiment with these words:

"We've got pretty much done and we're going to do lots more. The year is only half gone. We are paid for a year's work and we can stay here all year if we have to."

Congress might do just that if some of the big bills jelling in committees are to be considered. Members already are talking about a long recess over Labor Day. They are resigned to a long session.

There is no certainty now that a tax revision bill requested by President Kennedy will be passed this year by the House. It has become entangled with the President's broad civil rights program which is overshadowing everything else on Capitol Hill.

Because of the prospects for a long and bitter fight over both taxes and civil rights, leaders may concentrate during the next few months on disposing of the necessary appropriation bills and some relatively non-controversial measures.

8 More Courses Set For Ohio Unemployed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Education Department plans eight more courses for Ohio's unemployed during July. The courses, mainly federally financed, are designed to teach marketable skills.

They will be conducted in Cleveland (clerk-stenographer), Springfield (nurse's aide), Toledo (automobile service station mechanic-attendant), Ashtabula (nurseryman), Sandusky (medical clerk), Warren (diesel mechanic) and Youngstown (sales person for women's garments).

Ohio Turnpike Totals New Revenue Record

CLEVELAND (AP) — Income on the Oho Turnpike for the first six months of this year amounted to an estimated $11.8 million, the highest for any comparable period since the toll road opened.

James W. Shocknessy, Turnpike commissioner, reported today that income for the first half of 1963 was approximately $317,000 higher than for the corresponding period in 1962. Revenue in June totaled $2.8 million exceeding that of June 1962 by almost $75,000.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Protecting Child Provides Problem

A problem every mother has with the youngster as he begins to move about under his own steam is to portect him from dangers and to keep him from things he can endanger.

Dr. Garry Meyers

A Michigan mother writes: "Will you please advise me on a few of the problems I have with my only child? He is 19 months old. Each morning he stays in the playpen for about an hour, so long as I stay out of his sight. During the next hour or two, we play, read or walk together.

One reason for this is that most of my housework involves mops, pails, etc. He would love to play with these so, rather than fight with him, I put the work off until he is napping.

—:—

"THE PROBLEM comes after his nap. I am then busy in the kitchen with dishes or cooking. Occasionally, he will play quietly, but more often he is trying to get between me and the sink. He doesn't want me to play because, if I do sit down, he goes off alone to play.

"Should I make him sit in a chair? This usually works for other things.

"That brings up another question. Chair sitting or spanking usually cures him of a disobedience for an hour or a day, but then he forgets and does the same thing again, only to be punished once more.

"Lastly, I'm wondering what to do in this case: When a child is spanked and turns to you immediately for comfort, should he be cuddled?

"It seems that immediate petting would defeat the purpose, but that rejecting him would make him feel hated. What is right?"

My reply in part:

I'm sure you will need to teach that little child the meaning of "No" in relation to a few acts and things. I believe you will do best if you select just a few things or places that you forbid him. Be consistent; allow no exceptions to occur.

—:—

IN CASE YOU have him in the kitchen, be sure to teach him to stay at a safe corner farthest from dangers; otherwise, just put him in his playpen while you work. Since you get success from having him sit in a chair, you might continue with this punishment, always making it a definite time—say 15 minutes as a measured by the clock.

When you spank or punish him in any way, go about your work as if nothing had happened. If you choose to cuddle him then he will suppose you're sorry you gave him pain and that would defeat your purpose. You meant to give him pain in order to teach him to mind.

Cuddle him often at other times. Be sure there are many things he will be allowed to do. Perhaps with a toy broom, dust pan and carpet sweeper he would like to feel he is helping you about the house.

I hope you are reading to him often and talking to him about what you do with him and for him.

My bulletins, "How to Teach Child Meaning of No," "Stubbornness," "Love and Restraint" and "Teaching Child Care of Property," may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Arizona Couple Closes Visit With Lisbon Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ewing of Tucson, Ariz., have returned to their home following a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bailey of Salem Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewing of Salineville Rd.

During their visit, they attended the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewing June 18 and the wedding of their niece, Miss Kathryn Bailey, and Duane M. Bricker June 23 at St. Jacob's United Church of Christ.

Lisbon men who attended the coon dog race at Clinton Saturday evening were Einar Humlikjer, William Welsh, Joe Deville, Joe Deville Jr., Joe Smith and Carl McCord.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Peppel of Franklin Square Rd. were hosts to members of the Bethany Class of the First Christian Church Friday evening for a coverdish supper and cookout.

Mrs. Judy O'Neil of Crystal Lake, Ill., is visiting her aunt, Miss Grace Todd, her uncle, John Todd, and her grandfather, Ira Todd of the East Liverpool Rd.

Three Lisbon young women served as teachers of the senior high conference sponsored by the Presbyterian churches at Wooster last week. They are Miss Ruth Anne Gerrard and Miss Annabelle Libby, representing the First Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Edwin Kaufmann, representative of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Sidney Girl Selected Ohio's Dairy Princess

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Brown eyed and brunette Dixie Jo Nelson, 18, of Route 4, Sidney, an Ohio State University sophomore, was selected Saturday as the Ohio Dairy Princess in a competition which had 45 entrants.

The selection was announced at a luncheon held at the Ft. Hayes Hotel by the Dairy Association of Ohio, sponsors of the contest.

Miss Nelson will compete in Miami, Fla., in September with winners selected by other state dairy associations.

Runners - up in the contest are Sharon Martin, 18, of Rt. 3, Fremont; Annette Casper, 21, Rt. 2, Kenton; Gretta Feldwisch, 19, of Rt. 1, Carroll, Fairfield County, and Carol Rooney, 17, of Rt. 2, Dorset, Ashtabula County.

District entrants were Doris Vincent of Columbiana R. D. 2 and Ruth Ann Gray of Toronto R. D. 1.

Wheeling Man Heads Goldwater's Backers

WHEELING (AP) — Stuart F. Bloch of Wheeling has been elected president of "West Virginians for Goldwater."

Bloch said his group is part of the national organization promoting Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1964.

Local chairmen named over the weekend are George Weaver Jr. of Wheeling, Robert Q. Jones of Charleston, Charles F. Reininger of Charles Town, Edward White of Union - Lewisburg, and James A. McWhorter of Parkersburg.

Parma Bank Opens

CLEVELAND (AP)—The First National Bank of Parma, the first new bank in greater Cleveland in 40 years, will open today at 5603 Ridge Road in the suburban community.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Set Your Mind On A Slimming Course

A homemaker who calls herself a diet-failure, writes: "At the dinner table I am into second helpings before I realize it, often when I'm not really hungry!" Another writes: "I want to reduce, that is, I do until I sit down to the table, and then I forget all about it."

Ida Jean Kain

Both of these homemakers have an awareness of what they tend to do, and a desire to change. So, how to break the habit of taking seconds and stay in control of the situation when faced with an abundance of food?

An effective plan is to give forethought to the problem, and to decide in advance how you wish to act. A willingness to make advance decisions is a sign of mature thinking. You've come to grips with the overeating habit. By making an advance decision you build a connection between the mental resolve and the act of putting the decision into effective practice. People who control their weight, apparently without effort, actually use this plan, although they may not be consciously aware of it.

IN ESSENCE, when you plan in advance what to eat, and have a definite idea of mind regarding serving sizes, you gradually develop a built-in-slimming - system. If dinner is the meal at which you tend to go overboard, plan ahead. In your thinking and picturing, decide to take modest portions. Be specific about serving sizes. Since protein if the backbone of the menu, think in terms of a four-ounce portion (cooked weight) of lean meat, fish or chicken. Broil, bake or pan-fry with just a bit of oil. A quarter pound is a satisfying serving.

The balance of the menu includes one or two vegetables. The serving size of a green or yellow vegetable is three-fourths cup. With a starchy vegetable, the slimming serving is a half cup. Or choose a half potato. Limit margarine or butter for vegetables to a half pat, or one level teaspoon. A salad with a tablespoon of French Dressing, plus fresh fruit or other low calorie dessert, completes the meal. Total calories: About 450.

WHEN YOU plan in advance, then the actual doing is not a tug-of-will. Technically you have pre-established, through planning, a pathway in the nervous system which bids your mind to subsequently respond. This mind-set is quite different from trying to browbeat yourself into staying on a rigid diet. Pre-planning sets a tremendous force into action. Recognize that you will need to reaffirm your resolve daily for many weeks, and regularly reprint the plan in your mind. An ordeal? No, for when you are interested and have a goal, the project takes on a fascination.

Farewell Program Honors Ohio View Lutheran Pastor

The Rev. James N. Servey, pastor of the Ohio View Lutheran Church, was honored with farewell tributes and gifts from Daily Vacation Bible School pupils at the school's closing program Friday at the church.

Approximately 100 parents, relatives and friends of the children attended the program and visited the handicraft departments in Fellowship Hall and Sunday School annex rooms.

Theme of the Bible School was "Walking With God." Mrs. Laco Shreve was director, assisted by Mrs. Paul Brucker, Lynne Marsha Hazy, secretary; and Mrs. Edward Kramer, substitute. Mrs. Lee Albacker was music director and Lois Myers, organist.

Enrollment was 130, including teachers. Bible School attendance certificates were presented pupils by teachers at the conclusion of each class program.

Class instructors and handicraft workers were: Nursery: Mrs. Ronald Measel and Shirley Kramer; Kindergarten: Mrs. William McComb and Mrs. Richard Rockwell; Primary: Mrs. Donald Leonberg and Mrs. John Romisher; Junior I Class: Mrs. Frank Thorne and Mrs. Jack Peck; Junior II; Mrs. John Little and Mrs. John Kostelac, and Junior - Senior High: Rev. Servey.

The opening prayer and benediction were given by Rev. Servey, who commended teachers and assistants. He presented each a certificate of appreciation. Serving as acolytes, ushers and offering - bearers were members of the Junior High class. Mrs. Ellen Kell was guest organist.

The program included memory verses and songs by the nursery class; finger play, letter to the pastor and a prayer by the kindergarten class; songs and prayer by the primary class; "About Bible School", class song, a small act and a farewell song to Rev. Servey by the Junior I class; "There is a Green Hill Far Away" song responses to verse reading by the Junior II class, and a medley of songs learned by the Junior I and Junior II groups.

A picnic followed rehearsal Friday morning in the hall. Mrs. Robert Cowan was assisted by her daughter, Marilyn, in serving punch and ice cream.

Police Hold 2 Youths For Cincinnati Attack

CINCINNATI (AP)—Roscoe McGeorge, 18, was in serious condition at General Hospital early today after being stabbed in the stomach with a three-inch knife blade.

McGeorge told police he and a companion were walking along a West End street when one of two other youths said something. McGeorge said he asked if they were talking to him and one of them stabbed him. Police held the two youths on an open charge.

Ohio Lists 14 Road Deaths For Weekend

By The Associated Press

Traffic	14
Drownings	7
Miscellaneous	1
Total	22

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Each of the five weekends in June was marred by a high number of accidental deaths in Ohio as 21 or more persons were killed during each period. The weekend totals were the highest since May 1962.

The final weekend saw 22 persons die. Fourteen perished on the highways, seven drowned and one died in a miscellaneous accident.

The worst weekend of the month was the first, when 33 lost their lives in accidents. Twenty-six died the weekend of June 9, 22 the weekend of June 16, and 21 the weekend of June 23.

The fatalities:

Sunday

Carl Dnever Halfhill, 11, Vinton, Gallia County, when the car he was in crashed on Ohio 554 eight miles west of Cheshire.

Robert B. Milke, 24, Clyde, when his car crashed on Sandusky County Road 205 two miles north of Bellevue.

Juan Jiminez, 22, Cleveland, when his car veered off Ohio 301 in Sheffield Village (Lorain County), struck a guard rail and rammed into the front of a house.

Robert Nelson Hammons, 5, struck by a car in Hamilton.

Steve Lieser, 15, Dover, drowned in the Tuscora Park swimming pool in New Philadelphia.

Mary Ann Lutz, 49, and Marion Bosnavits, both of Brunswick, in a two-car crash near Bellevue in Huron County.

Richard Bond, 10, Akron, drowned at Kool Lake Park near Akron.

Pasty Stiver, 16, a Germantown (Montgomery County) in a single car crash at an intersection near Germantown.

Sandy Miller, 12, in a two-car crash east of Hamilton.

John D. Goff, 30, near Proctorville (Lawrence County), when the station wagon he was in struck a tree near Proctorville.

Saturday

Michael Shafer, 16, Ravenna, drowned while swimming at Holiday Sands on Ohio 14 near Ravenna.

Patricia Joan Stinson, 14, Mansfield, drowned while swimming in a Mansfield public pool.

Levi H. Miller, 15, Maysville, drowned while swimming in a farm pond near his home 10 miles southeast of Wooster.

Max Edward Lindig, 18, near London, in the collision of his car and a truck on Ohio 38 six miles north of London.

Ellis J. Denlinger, 29, Germantown, when his car struck two culverts and a utility pole west of Dayton.

Mrs. Marilyn Leggett, 25, Ripley, and stepdaughter, Jennifer, 3, drowned in the Ohio River near Ripley.

Friday Night

Floyd Marshall, 64, Oak Harbor, in a two-car crash on Ohio 163 west of Port Clinton.

John Gossom, 16, and Allen Daniels, 16, both of Mansfield, when their car crashed into the rear of a disabled truck in Mansfield.

Stephen Phillips, 8, buried in an excavation ditch near his home in the Cincinnati suburb of Norwood.

New York Ends Death Penalty In Planned Murder

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The mandatory death penalty for persons convicted of premeditated murder was abolished in New York State today.

Under a law effective today, the penalty for premeditated murder will be life imprisonment unless the jury, meeting in a separate session after returning a verdict, agrees unanimously on the death penalty.

New York thus became the last state in the nation to eliminate the mandatory death sentence in convictions for premeditated murder.

In the change, the state also has eliminated a long-standing distinction between first-degree murders—premeditated and felony.

"Felony murder" is the designation for a slaying committed during a crime, such as robbery or arson, and not necessarily premeditated. All persons who participate in the crime are subject to charges of first-degree murder, regardless of which one did the actual killing.

Henceforth, there will be no distinction in first-degree murder cases in setting the penalty. It will be life imprisonment unless the jury recommends death.

ORDINANCE NO. 23, 1963

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF $1,240,000 SEWERAGE SYSTEM REFUNDING AND IMPROVEMENT MORTGAGE REVENUE BONDS OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL UNDER SECTION 12, ARTICLE XVIII, OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO FOR THE PURPOSE OF REFUNDING AT A LOWER AGGREGATE INTEREST COST THE CITY'S OUTSTANDING FIRST MORTGAGE SEWERAGE SYSTEM REVENUE BONDS MATURING DECEMBER 1, 1968 AND THEREAFTER; TO CALL FOR REDEMPTION THE PORTION OF THE OUTSTANDING BONDS MATURING AFTER DECEMBER 1, 1967; TO AUTHORIZE THE EXECUTION OF A MORTGAGE OF SAID SYSTEM TO SECURE SAID REFUNDING AND IMPROVEMENT BONDS AND TO SECURE ADDITIONAL BONDS HEREAFTER ISSUED ON A PARITY THEREWITH; TO DEFINE THE TERMS OF A FRANCHISE UNDER WHICH IN CASE OF FORECLOSURE, THE PURCHASER MAY OPERATE SAID SYSTEM; TO PROVIDE, IN EVENT OF DEFAULT, FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A RECEIVER TO ADMINISTER SAID SYSTEM, AND TO DECLARE AN EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, the City of East Liverpool (herein called the "Municipality") now owns and operates as a public utility (hereinafter referred to as the "Utility"), a sewerage system, the services of which are and are to be supplied to persons and corporations within and without the corporate limits of the Municipality; and

WHEREAS, there is now outstanding a mortgage dated as of June 1, 1956, and a supplemental mortgage dated as of February 1, 1957, (respectively recorded in Columbiana County Real Estate Morgage Records, Volume 962, Page 533, and Volume 981, Page 597, said mortgage and supplemental mortgage being collectively hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Outstanding Mortgage") given in compliance with Ordinance No. 4374-1956 passed May 14, 1956, and supplemental Ordinance No. 9-1957 passed January 21, 1957, to secure an issue in the authorized principal amount of $2,000,000 of which a first installment of $1,000,000 dated June 1, 1956, and a second installment of $500,000 dated February 1, 1957, have been issued (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Outstanding Issue"); and

WHEREAS, said Outstanding Issue is subject to call in whole or in part on December 1, 1966, or on any interest payment date thereafter, is now outstanding in the principal amount of $1,400,000 and bears interest as to the first installment at the rates per annum of 3¼% on bonds maturing in the years 1963 to 1970, inclusive, and 3½% on bonds maturing in the years 1971 to 1968, inclusive, and as to the second installment at the rates per annum of 4¾% on bonds maturing in the years 1963 to 1972, inclusive, 4½% on bonds maturing in the years 1973 to 1985, inclusive, and 4¼% on bonds maturing in the years 1986 to 1988, inclusive; and

WHEREAS, based upon the proposal hereinafter referred to, the Municipality will, by immediate provision for the call and refunding of $1,240,000 in principal amount of the Outstanding Issue maturing December 1, 1968, and thereafter and interim investment of the refunding bond proceeds, be able to effect a substantial saving in the interest cost which would otherwise accrue on the bonds to be refunded, and the Council of the Municipality desires, in order to accomplish such refunding and thereby to obtain the benefits aforesaid, to provide herein for the issuance and sale of mortgage revenue bonds, to be designated Sewerage System Refunding and Improvement Mortgage Revenue Bonds, in accordance with Article XVIII, Section 12 of the Constitution of Ohio, which bonds (hereinafter called "Refunding Bonds") and any additional bonds subsequently issued under the terms of this ordinance on a parity therewith (hereinafter called "Additional Bonds", the Refunding Bonds and the Additional Bonds being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Bonds") are to be secured by the Mortgage hereinafter provided for (hereinafter referred to as the "Mortgage") upon the properties, assets and revenues of the Utility and by a franchise to become effective in the event of foreclosure of the Mortgage;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Columbiana County, Ohio, that:

Section 1. Sewerage System a Utility — Authorization of $1,240,000 of Refunding Bonds, Use of Proceeds — The Council of the Municipality hereby finds and determines that the municipal sewerage system has been, and shall hereafter be, operated as a public utility, including all extensions of and improvements to said system; and that the rates and charges for the services of said Utility have been determined and fixed in an amount sufficient to pay the costs of operating and maintaining said Utility and to leave an amount of revenues adequate to comply with the covenants herein provided for; and pursuant to the authority conferred by Section 3 of Article XVIII of the Constitution of Ohio, Council further finds and determines that it is for the best interest of the Municipality to obtain the saving in interest cost herein recited and for such purpose and to obtain the maximum available savings for the Municipality it is necessary forthwith to call for redemption on December 1, 1967 the Outstanding Issue and forthwith to issue and sell the Refunding Bonds in the principal amount of $1,240,000 and having the terms herein provided for the purpose of providing funds necessary to effect the refunding at a lower aggregate interest cost the portion of the Municipality's outstanding Issue maturing on December 1, 1968, and thereafter, including provision for a portion of the call premium thereon.

Section 2. Terms of Refunding Bonds — The Refunding Bonds shall be initially issued in coupon or fully registered form as may be requested by the Original Purchaser thereof and shall be exchangeable for fully registered or coupon bonds in the manner and on the terms provided in the Mortgage. The Refunding Bonds in coupon form shall be dated May 15, 1963, shall be registrable as to principal, and shall be in the denomination of $5,000 each, except that two bonds maturing on each of the dates December 1, 1968, 1969, 1975 and 1980 and June 1, 1972, and one bond maturing on each of the dates December 1, 1974, 1984 and 1985 and June 1, 1977 and 1982 shall be of the denomination of $1,000. Refunding Bonds in fully registered form shall be in denominations of $5,000 or any multiple thereof, provided the Refunding Bonds in fully registered form representing June 1, 1972, 1977 and 1982 and December 1, 1968, 1969, 1974, 1975, 1980, 1984 and 1985 maturities may in addition evidence one or more of the Refunding Bonds in coupon form in the denomination of $1,000 maturing on such respective dates or may for such purpose be in the denomination of $1,000 or any multiple thereof. Refunding Bonds in both coupon and registered form shall be numbered as determined by the Fiscal Officer. Each Refunding Bond in registered form without coupons shall be dated as of the interest payment date on which it is authenticated or the interest payment date next preceding the date of its authentication or as of the same date as the coupon bonds if authenticated prior to the first interest payment date; provided, however, if, at the time of authentication of a registered bond without coupons, interest is in default, such Refunding Bond shall be dated, as of the date to which interest has been paid. The Refunding Bonds shall mature annually on June 1 and December 1 in each of the years 1968 to 1988, inclusive, as set forth below and shall bear interest payable semiannually on June first and December first of each year, beginning December 1, 1963, until the principal sum becomes due and payable at the rates per annum of 3½% on bonds maturing in the years 1968 to 1973, inclusive; 3¼% on bonds maturing in the years 1974 to 1976, inclusive; 3½% on bonds maturing in the years 1977 to 1983, inclusive; and 3.60% on bonds maturing in the years 1984 to 1988, inclusive; with interest on any overdue principal and (to the extent that payment of such interest is enforceable under applicable law) on any overdue installment of interest, at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum until the principal sum is paid:

Year	Amount Maturing June 1	December 1
1968	$20,000	$22,000
1969	20,000	22,000
1970	20,000	25,000

1986	35,000	40,000
1987	35,000	40,000
1988	40,000

Refunding Bonds maturing on and after June 1, 1974, shall be subject to redemption in whole or in part on any interest payment date on and after December 1, 1973, at the following redemption prices, plus accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption, by notice of redemption, specifying the numbers of the Refunding Bonds (and portions of registered Refunding Bonds) to be called, published by the Trustee on behalf of the Municipality once a week for two consecutive weeks in a financial journal of national circulation, the first publication to be not more than forty (40) nor less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of redemption, upon which date all interest upon the Refunding Bonds or portions thereof so called shall cease except for those as to which default shall be made, upon presentation, in the payment of the redemption price: 102% of par if redeemed on or before December 1, 1978; 101½% of par if redeemed thereafter but on or before December 1, 1982; and 101% of par if redeemed after December 1, 1982. If less than the entire unmatured portion of said Refunding Bonds is called for redemption at any time or from time to time, they shall be called in inverse order of maturity of those outstanding, and if less than all of said bonds outstanding of one maturity are to be called, the selection of bonds or portions of fully registered bonds of such maturity to be called shall be made by lot by the Trustee in such manner as the Trustee may determine.

Principal and interest thereon shall be payable at the principal office of the Trustee except that interest on fully registered bonds shall be payable by check or draft as provided in the Mortgage.

The Refunding Bonds shall be signed by the Executive and the Fiscal Officer of the Municipality, provided that one of such signatures may be a facsimile, and shall bear the corporate seal or a facsimile thereof, and the interest coupons thereon shall bear the facsimile signature of the Fiscal Officer. When used in this Ordinance, "Executive" shall mean the Mayor, "Fiscal Officer" shall mean the Auditor, and "Legal Officer" shall mean the Solicitor. Any officer or board which hereafter succeeds, by operation of law, to the powers and duties of any such officers shall be deemed included in the applicable official designation while having such powers and duties.

The Mortgage referred to herein is the Indenture of Mortgage hereinafter provided for, between the Municipality and "The Union Commerce Bank, Cleveland, Ohio (herein with its successors called the "Trustee").

Section 3. Sale of Refunding Bonds —The Refunding Bonds are hereby awarded and sold to Fahey, Clark & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, and Associates in accordance with their proposal dated May 31, 1963, which is hereby accepted; and shall be delivered by the Fiscal Officer upon compliance with the terms thereof and of this Ordinance. Such purchaser is referred to in this Ordinance as the "Original Purchaser".

Section 4. Proceeds of Refunding Bonds and Other Redemption Funds —All moneys received upon the issuance of the Refunding Bonds shall be forthwith delivered to the Trustee for deposit in the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account, hereby established. In addition thereto and in order to consummate by call the refunding of the Outstanding Issue on December 1, 1967, the Municipality will deposit with the Trustee, concurrently with the delivery of the Refunding Bonds, the sum of $13,500 out of moneys on hand in the Replacement and Improvement Fund of the Outstanding Issue, it being hereby found and determined that moneys in said amount are presently available for such purpose; and Council hereby authorizes and directs the Fiscal Officer to make such deposit.

All moneys so deposited in said Account shall be immediately invested by the Trustee as fully as may be in 3⅜% United States Treasury Bonds maturing November 15, 1967. Council hereby finds and determines such investment to be the most advantageous in yield and maturity date for the provision of necessary refunding moneys and to accomplish the maximum savings benefits to the Municipality. The Sewerage Bond Refunding Account, including all income derived from investments thereof, shall be held by the Trustee and shall be used solely to pay interest on the Refunding Bonds accruing to the date of redemption and retirement of the Outstanding Issue and otherwise to refund and retire on December 1, 1967, the bonds of the Outstanding Issue maturing on and after December 1, 1968; and the Trustee shall in due time on or before December 1, 1967, pay over to the Trustee of the Outstanding Issue the entire balance in the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account after providing for interest accruing on the Refunding Bonds to the date of redemption and retirement of the Outstanding Issue, or the sum of $1,264,800, if less than such entire balance, provided that the Trustee hereunder shall then have received or simultaneously therewith shall receive (a) a written statement from the trustee of the Outstanding Issue certifying that it then has on hand and available for the purpose moneys sufficient, when added to the amount to be paid over from the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account, to meet the requirements for defeasance as set forth in paragraph (b) of Section 1002 of the Outstanding Mortgage; (b) an opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Trustee that all requirements of the Outstanding Issue for perfecting the call of all callable bonds of said Outstanding Issue then outstanding have been met; and (c) such instrument of satisfaction executed by the trustee of the Outstanding Issue as shall, in the opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Trustee, be sufficient and appropriate to effect the immediate satisfaction and discharge of record of the Outstanding Mortgage. The Municipality under the provisions of Section 1002 of the Outstanding Mortgage hereby makes demand that the trustee of the Outstanding Issue, when the requirements of defeasance set forth in said section have been met, cause satisfaction and discharge of the Outstanding Mortgage to be entered on the records.

Moneys from time to time on hand in the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account and not expended for the initial investment provided for in the preceding paragraph shall, when and as directed by the Fiscal Officer, be invested in direct obligations of the United States maturing or redeemable by the holder not later than the interest payment date next following such investment, as to moneys held for interest, and not later than November 15, 1967, as to other moneys therein. Any balance which may remain in the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account after completion of the payments provided for in the first paragraph of this Section shall be transferred to the Replacement and Improvement Fund established in Section 6 hereof.

Section 5. Redemption of Outstanding Issue — All bonds of the Outstanding Issue maturing on and after December 1, 1968 are hereby called for redemption on December 1, 1967; and the Municipality hereby covenants with the Trustee and with the Original Purchaser and subsequent holders of the Refunding Bonds that it will at no time hereafter modify or rescind such call for redemption, that it will take and will cause the trustee of the Outstanding Issue to take all further steps required by the terms of the Outstanding Issue to perfect such call, and that it will provide from the Special Funds established by Section 4 of the Original Ordinance and will make available therefrom to the trustee of the Outstanding Issue moneys sufficient, together with assets in the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account, to pay in full all principal, premium and interest which will be due and payable on December 1, 1967, on the bonds so called and on any other then outstanding bonds of the Outstanding Issue.

Section 6. Revenues and Funds and Transfer upon Satisfaction of Outstanding Mortgage — Until the Outstanding Mortgage has been satisfied and discharged, the payments into and out of the "Debt Service Fund", "Debt Service Reserve Fund" and "Replacement and Improvement Fund" established by Section 4 of the Original Ordinance shall continue to be made in accordance with the provisions of said section.

Forthwith after the satisfaction and discharge of the Outstanding Mortgage the Municipality will make the following transfers from Special Funds for the Outstanding Issue to funds or accounts herein established for the Bonds: (a) all "Debt Service Fund" assets shall be transferred to the Bond Account; (b) all "Debt Service Reserve Fund" assets shall be transferred to the Bond Reserve Account; (c) all "Replacement and Improvement Fund" assets and all "Surplus Fund" assets shall be transferred to similarly designated Funds provided for in Section 7 of this Ordinance.

Section 7. Deposit of Revenues and Application Thereof — So long as any of the Bonds secured by the Mortgage remain outstanding, all revenues from the operation of the Utility, as now constituted or hereafter improved or extended, shall continue to be deposited in the Sewer Revenue Fund established by the Original Ordinance, which Fund shall continue to be maintained in the name of the Municipality, in a bank deposit separate and distinct from all other funds of the Municipality, under the provisions of this ordinance from and after the satisfaction and discharge of the Outstanding Mortgage. Out of said Fund, and after reserving therein at all times an adequate sum as working capital for the Utility and after providing for satisfaction of the obligations of the Municipality under the Outstanding Mortgage, the following payments only shall be made and in the following order, to wit:

First: All reasonable and proper expenses of operating and maintaining the Utility and all its appurtenances, such expenses to exclude those of any other utility of the Municipality whether or not such other utility shall be operated as a single unit with the Utility; and also all payments required to be made by the Original Ordinance to the "Debt Service Fund," "Debt Service Reserve Fund" and "Replacement and Improvement Fund" therein established until satisfaction and discharge of the Outstanding Mortgage.

Second: Quarterly on the fifteenth days of February, May, August and November, beginning on February 15, 1968, into the Bond Account each quarterly amounts as shall be sufficient, with moneys then on hand therein, to pay the interest due on the next ensuing interest payment date and the next ensuing principal maturity of all Bonds outstanding and, if any of such Bonds shall be term Bonds, to provide the amount annually necessary to retire (by call or otherwise) at or before the maturity thereof all term Bonds; provided that if any Additional Bonds shall have been issued prior to February 15, 1968, then the deposits herein required shall be made with respect to interest and principal maturing on such Additional Bonds quarterly commencing with the first such quarterly date occurring after the issuance thereof.

Third: Quarterly, as aforesaid, beginning February 15, 1963, into the Bond Reserve Account a sum at least equal to 20% of the amount payable on such deposit date into the Bond Account under Paragraph Second hereof, and in the event of issuance of Additional Bonds there shall be paid into the Bond Reserve Account, commencing with the first such quarterly deposit date occurring after the issuance of such Additional Bonds, such additional quarterly amounts as shall be provided for in the ordinance authorizing the Additional Bonds but a sum at least equal to 20% of the amount payable on such deposit date into the Bond Account under Paragraph Second hereof with respect to such Additional Bonds in order to establish and maintain an aggregate Bond Reserve Account balance equal at all times to not less than 125% of the maximum annual maturities of principal and interest on all Bonds from time to time outstanding.

Fourth: Quarterly, as aforesaid, beginning February 15, 1968, into the Replacement and Improvement Fund a sum at least equal to $2,500; provided that whenever and for so long as the moneys on hand in said Fund shall be not less than $100,000, the payments required by this Paragraph Fourth may be suspended.

Fifth: Quarterly, as aforesaid, such sum in addition to any of the foregoing allocations as may be necessary and available, after meeting the requirements of the preceding Paragraphs First, Second, Third and Fourth to make up any previous deficiency in any such required deposits.

Sixth: Annually on January 15, beginning in 1964, the revenues available in the Sewer Revenue Fund at the end of the preceding calendar year, after reserving therein an amount sufficient to provide necessary accruals against the current year's requirements of Paragraphs Second to Fifth, inclusive, and after reserving therein an adequate sum as working capital for the Utility, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the "Surplus Fund" of the Outstanding Issue until the Outstanding Mortgage has been satisfied and discharged, and thereafter into the Surplus Fund for the Bonds.

Section 8. Custody and Use of Special Funds and Accounts — The Bond Account and Bond Reserve Account shall be maintained in the custody of the Trustee and shall be used solely for the payment of the principal and interest of the Bonds, and, to the extent provided in this Ordinance, for the redemption of Bonds. Until required for such purposes, moneys in the Bond Reserve Account shall be invested in direct obligations of the United States maturing or redeemable by the holder in not more than five years from date of investment, when and as directed by the Fiscal Officer of the Municipality, and moneys in the Bond Account shall, when and as directed by said Fiscal Officer, be invested in direct obligations of the United States maturing or redeemable by the holder not later than the interest payment date next following such investment, as to moneys held for interest, and not later than the principal payment date next following such investment, as to moneys held for principal. If at any time the Municipality shall have provided the Trustee with moneys sufficient, together with moneys and investments then in the Bond Account and Bond Reserve Account, to retire in full on the next available redemption date any outstanding Bonds, without thereby reducing the balance thereafter remaining in said Bond Account and Bond Reserve Account below the amount which on such call date would be required by Section 7 to be on hand therein with respect to Bonds not to be so retired, the Trustee shall make available out of said Bond Account and Bond Reserve Account the amount required, together with the other moneys provided, to accomplish such retirement. Moneys in the Bond Reserve Account at any time in excess of the amount from time to time required to be maintained therein may be applied by the Municipality to retire Bonds by call or by purchase for cancellation.

The Replacement and Improvement Fund shall be maintained in the custody of the Municipality as a trust fund, in a bank deposit duly secured, and, until required for any of the purposes hereinafter mentioned, may be invested in direct obligations of the United States maturing or redeemable by the holder, not more than ten years from date of investment. Moneys on hand in said Replacement and Improvement Fund shall, to the extent necessary, after applying to that purpose any moneys in the Surplus Fund, be transferred to the Bond Account to permit the payment of obligations payable therefrom without use of the moneys in the Bond Reserve Account, and otherwise may be used to replace, rebuild or recondition worn - out, obsolete or inadequate equipment and properties of the Utility and for betterments, improvements and extensions to the Utility, or for the retirement of Bonds by call or by purchase for cancellation.

The Surplus Fund shall be in the custody of the Municipality. There shall be retained in the Surplus Fund at all times, and applied to such purpose, sufficient funds to make up any deficiency that may reasonably be anticipated or exist in any deposit provided for by paragraphs Second, Third, or Fourth of Section 7. Except as aforesaid, all moneys in the Surplus Fund may, at the option of the Municipality, be used for any lawful Utility purpose, including without implied limitation the payment of interest and principal of general obligation bonds of the Municipality hereafter issued for improvements to the Utility or the retirement of outstanding Bonds by call or by purchase for cancellation.

Any Bonds purchased for cancellation shall be purchased at a price which shall not exceed the fair market value of the Bonds so purchased nor the redemption price of such Bonds, if any, prevailing at the time of purchase.

As used in this ordinance, operating and maintenance expenses shall not include depreciation or capital replacements. Interest on any moneys or investments in each Account or Fund shall be credited to such Account or Fund.

Section 9. Additional Bonds — The Municipality hereby covenants that it will not issue any additional bonds on a parity with the bonds of the Outstanding Issue pursuant to the authority granted by Section 6 of the Original Ordinance, nor any presently unissued portion of said Outstanding Issue.

The Municipality shall, however, have the right from time to time to issue Additional Bonds for the purpose only of (i) making replacements, extensions and improvements to the Utility, or (ii) refunding for any lawful purpose any outstanding Bonds where the retirement of the refunded Bonds will be fully accomplished in not more than 90 days after issuance of the Additional Bonds, which Additional Bonds shall be payable from the Bond Account and Bond Reserve Account and other special funds hereinafter established, excepting the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account, and shall be secured by a lien upon the properties and revenues of the Utility on a parity with the Refunding Bonds, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver such Additional Bonds; provided, that, when any such Additional Bonds are issued, the Municipality shall have furnished to the Trustee the following:

(A) Certificate of Fiscal Officer and Legal Officer of the Municipality certifying that, to the best of their knowledge, the Municipality is not, on the date of issue of such Additional Bonds, in default in the performance of any of its covenants provided in this Ordinance, in the Mortgage or in the Bonds, or in the Outstanding Mortgage if not then satisfied and discharged.

(B) Certificate of an independent engineer, satisfactory to the Trustee, showing:

(1) That as estimated by such independent engineer, the prospective net revenues of the Utility, based upon rates in effect at the date of sale of such Additional Bonds and on such independent engineer's estimate of the expenses of operation and maintenance of the Utility after the issuance of such Additional Bonds or after completion of the improvements or replacements to be financed by such Additional Bonds where issued for such purpose, averaged over the period of five calendar years thereafter ensuing, will be in an amount at least equal to the Required Coverage, hereinafter defined, for issuance of Additional Bonds, and

(2) That the replacements, extensions or improvements to be financed by such Additional Bonds, where issued for such purpose, are reasonably necessary for the proper and economical operation of the Utility or for meeting existing or prospective demands for its services, or both.

(C) A certified copy of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such Additional Bonds which will show that the earliest call date thereof is not earlier than December 1, 1973.

(D) In the case of Additional Bonds to be issued for the purposes of refunding any Bonds, evidence satisfactory to the Trustee (i) that provision has been made to assure that moneys sufficient to retire the Bonds to be refunded will be available in the possession of the Trustee at the time provided for retirement thereof under the plan for refunding and are committed to such purpose, and (ii) that moneys sufficient to pay interest accrued and to accrue and principal, if any, payable on such Additional Bonds prior to such retirement of the Bonds to be thereby refunded have been deposited to the Bond Account without impairment of any provision or covenant of this Ordinance, and from sources other than the Sewer Revenue Fund and other than the Bond Reserve Account and Replacement and Improvement Fund except to the extent of any moneys in such Special Funds in excess of the balances required to be maintained therein under the provisions of Section 7 hereof, the transfer of which excess moneys for such purpose is hereby authorized, or will be deposited directly to the Bond Account from appropriate portions of the proceeds from the sale of such Additional Bonds pursuant to the ordinance identified in Clause (C) above.

"Required Coverage" as used in this section shall mean 140% of the largest amount which would be needed to be paid into the Bond Account in any year to meet interest and principal maturities of all Bonds to be outstanding immediately after the issuance of the Additional Bonds. In making the calculation for purposes of the certificate provided for in Clause (B) above, interest and principal maturities of the Outstanding Issue shall for the period ending December 1, 1967, be substituted for the interest and principal maturities on the Refunding Bonds; and in the case of issuance of Additional Bonds for refunding outstanding Bonds, interest and principal maturities of such Additional Bonds shall be used in lieu of and to the exclusion of interest and principal maturities of the Bonds being refunded thereby.

To the extent that the amounts of deposits required to be made under Section 7 hereof are to be determined on the basis of the principal amount or principal and interest requirements of Bonds outstanding, in determining the amounts of such deposits made or to be made while there remain outstanding Bonds for the refunding of which Additional Bonds have been issued the principal amount and principal and interest requirements of such Additional Bonds shall be disregarded.

Section 10. Terms of the Bonds Generally — The Refunding Bonds shall be designated as set forth in the Preambles of this Ordinance; and the Refunding Bonds and the Additional Bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States, shall be in coupon form but with privilege of registration as to principal or in fully registered form as provided in the ordinance authorizing such bonds or in the Mortgage, shall be negotiable instruments, shall express upon their faces the purpose for which they are issued, shall be issued pursuant to Article XVIII, Section 12 of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, and shall be executed and sealed in such manner as may be required in such ordinance or by any then applicable law or charter provision. Interest coupons attached to the Refunding Bonds and Additional Bonds shall be executed as required by such ordinance or by any then applicable law or charter provision. Additional Bonds shall bear such designation as may be necessary to distinguish them from the Refunding Bonds or other Additional Bonds having different provisions and shall have maturities, interest rates, interest payment dates, redemption provisions, denominations and other provisions as provided in this Ordinance or in the ordinances hereafter adopted providing for issuance of the Additonal Bonds, provided, however, that such terms and provisions shall not be inconsistent with this Ordinance, the Mortgage or the then outstanding Bonds.

The Bonds shall be payable solely from the revenues and properties of the Utility, the Refunding Bonds being further payable from moneys and investments in the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account unless or until the same shall have been paid out pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 hereof, and shall be secured only, but equally and ratably without priority of one over another by reason of number or of date of bonds, sale, execution or delivery, by the Mortgage constituting a lien upon said revenues and properties, after provision for the reasonable operation and maintenance expenses of the Utility, and by the franchise hereinafter provided for under which, in case of foreclosure of the Mortgage, the purchaser may operate the Utility; and anything in the Mortgage, in this Ordinance or in the Bonds to the contrary notwithstanding, neither the general resources of the Municipality shall be required to be used nor the general credit of the Municipality pledged for the performance of any duty under the Mortgage, this Ordinance or the Bonds, but any payment to be made under the Mortgage, this Ordinance or the Bonds shall be made only from the properties and revenues of the Utility, and from the Sewerage Bond Refunding Account to the extent herein provided; provided, however, that, if otherwise lawful, nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit the Municipality from using, of its own volition, any of its general resources for the fulfillment of any of the terms and conditions of the Mortgage, this Ordinance or the Bonds.

Section 11. Covenants of the Municipality — The Municipality, by issuance of the Refunding Bonds, shall covenant with the holders of the Bonds and with the Trustee (a) that it will at all times prescribe and charge such rates for the services of the Utility, and will so restrict operation and maintenance expenses of the Utility, as shall result in Utility revenues at least adequate, after meeting such operation and maintenance expenses, to provide for (i) the payments required by this Ordinance to be made into the Bond Account, Bond Reserve Account, or other special funds, (ii) proper improvement and replacement reserves, and (iii) sufficient earnings coverage to permit the issue of the Additional Bonds required for the construction of necessary or advisable extensions or improvements; (b) that the Municipality will furnish to the Trustee and to the original purchasers of the Bonds seminannual reports of the operation and income of the Utility and also an annual report of the accounts and operations of the Utility and will permit the authorized representatives of said Trustee, of the original purchasers, or of any holder or holders of twenty-five per centum of the amount of the Bonds at the time outstanding to inspect the Utility and all records, accounts and data of the Utility at all reasonable times; (c) that the Municipality will segregate the revenues, funds and properties of the Utility from all other funds and properties of the Municipality; and (d) that the Municipality will observe and perform all its agreements and obligations provided for by the Bonds, the Mortgage, or this Ordinance and those provided for in the Outstanding Issue and in the ordinances and mortgages pertaining thereto. All of the obligations under this Section 11 are hereby established as duties specifically enjoined by law and resulting from an office, trust or station upon the Municipality within the meaning of R.C. Section 2731.01.

Section 12. Mortgage — In order to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds as the same shall become due and payable and the performance of the obligations of the Municipality in this Ordinance, the Bonds or

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Folks: Have you ever seen a stunned mother and father standing outside the emergency room door in a hospital waiting . . . waiting . . . and the father saying, "That's my baby girl," as the tears roll down his cheeks!

For this child it was too late. The child had drunk poison and some poisons have no antidote! If you just knew what was under sink, and in your cabinets that could cause this same scene (it might not be your own child, but could be the child from next door) you would scurry immediately and put these things out of the reach of young ones and the oldsters who can't see clearly.

Yes. . .even those sleeping pills and aspirin tablets and tranquilizers on your bedside table! They are dynamite, not to you perhaps, but to someone else.

Most accidents occur in the safest place . . . home! Is it so safe?

Look at your cabinets . . . under the sink . . . on your bedside table . . around your washing machine!

Store all medicines, cleaning and polishing agents out of the reach of children.

NEVER CALL medicine "candy". Tell a child that you are taking medicine when he sees you doing it.

Seventeen million youngsters in the United States alone are injured or killed each year. Over 90 per cent of these would not have happened if precautions had been taken. This figure may be almost completely eliminated if you, my dear friend, will help.

Hide, hide, hide all that aspirin, sleeping pills, get-up-pills, furniture polish, kerosene, detergents, bleach and insecticides.

Eliminate burns, which are mostly caused when mothers neglect to turn the handle of a pot or pan around . . . backward or sideways . . . when something is cooking on the stove. Make sure that a child cannot reach and grab for that pot or pan! When he smells good food, he's curious . . . remember?

If an accident does happen emergency treatment is most important. Are you aware that household ammonia in an eye (sometimes we drop a bottle or it splashes when pouring) can cause blindness unless first aid is given immediately? Be prepared by studying your first aid manual. Call your doctor, hospital emergency room, police or fire department. Those firemen are equipped for nearly anything!

IF YOU ARE on the verge of hysterics . . . dial "O" for operator on your phone. She is the best friend we have when we have difficulty making sense.

State your address FIRST! Just in case you collapse and it happens often. Then state what's happened so she can call the proper place and get help to you in a hurry. She knows. God bless our telephone operators.

Don't hang up the phone! Leave it off the hook so the operator can hear you. She wants to know what's going on so she can call more help if needed.

If you go to a hospital, remember (if possible) to take the bottle of whatever -it - was that Johnnie drank along to the hospital with you. The doctor will need that label.

There are thousands of products on the market today with new "bases" and the hospital must have the bottle in order to know what to use as an antidote. If they do not have the answer, your doctor will telephone the manufacturer and find out what it takes to save your child's life.

Let me impress upon you . . . DON'T put your child in the car and rush him to the hospital without first calling a hospital or doctor. The first five minutes may mean the difference in life and death. Life is precious. You can't buy it, trade it or redeem it! All you can do is try to save it.

June Rainfall Seen Lacking

About average temperatures with below average rainfall marked weather in June, according to Edwin Copeland of Millport, U. S. weather observer.

The 70-year temperature average for the month is 66.8 degrees, while this year the average was 66, he said.

The high for the month was 92 on June 27, while the low was 34 on June 23.

The average rainfall for the month is 4.02 inches, but only 2.37 inches fell this June, Copeland said. There were 14 clear days, 10 cloudy days and six partly cloudy. This was an average of 56 per cent sunshine, while the normal average is 63 per cent.

Temperatures for the first six months of this year were near normal, but slightly on the minus side. The rainfall is 2.71 inches behind normal. This, added to the 6.44 inches lacking in 1962, now makes the county 9.15 inches behind for the last 18 months, Copeland said.

Copeland said the lack of rainfall in his area has made poor pasture and hay. Above average rainfall is needed for the last six months of the year, he commented.

Bette Davis has made it official —her 16-year-old daughter, Barbara, will marry Jeremy Hyman, 29, a London film executive.

Word leaked out a week ago about the engagement of the couple who met at the Cannes Film Festival. Sunday night the actress-mother invited 80 friends to the Bel-Air Hotel in Hollywood and made the formal announcement.

Shipping Figure Dies

UDDEVALLA, Sweden (AP) — Gustaf Thorden, 69, former Swedish shipping magnate, was found dead Sunday in water off this west coast town. The Swedish News Agency said Thorden had been on a sailing trip with three friends and dropped anchor for the night near the fishing village of Gravarne. When the friends awakened Sunday morning Thorden was missing.

OFF THE RECORD

"Surely, Granddaughter, you're not going out without a petticoat underneath?"

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, July 1, the 182nd day of 1963. There are 183 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1863, the Civil War Battle of Gettysburg began. Seventy-five years later, in 1938, the 1,800 survivors of the United Confederate Veterans and the Grand Army of the Republic met at the famed battlesite in their last reunion.

On this date

In 1847, the first U.S. postage stamps were placed on sale in New York City.

In 1898, Theodore Roosevelt led his Rough Riders in the Battle of San Juan Hill in Cuba during the Spanish-American War.

In 1924, daily airmail service was inaugurated between New York and San Francisco.

In 1940, Adolf Hitler's Nazi forces captured the Latvian capital of Riga during World War II.

In 1957, the Mayflower II—replica of the Pilgrim ship—reached New York City after a voyage from Plymouth, England.

Ten years ago...West Berlin officials reported that 467 East German People's Policemen fled into western sectors during the month of June.

Five years ago...Secretary of State Dulles gave the view that the presence of United Nations observers in Lebanon had made some headway in restoring order to that country.

One year ago...Algerians voted overwhelmingly in favor of independence in a nationwide referendum, ending 132 years of French rule.

Clay pigeons, the traditional trapshooting targets, are made from a mixture of ground limestone and pitch melted together and formed in hot dies. They are commonly called clay pigeons as a holdover from the days when live targets were used.

Junior Editors Quiz on FISH

QUESTION: Why are goldfish gold?

ANSWER: Light rays coming to our eyes from the precious metal gold are a rich yellow in color. This same golden color can also come from the skin of certain fish and cause us to call them goldfish.

Goldfish were not always golden. They are a kind of a carp, a fish found in many parts of the world. Carp are usually dull olive in color, caused by a dark pigment. But sometimes this pigment may be thinned out or missing, in which case the fish will look whitish or yellowish. Hundreds of years ago the Chinese found that by sorting out the few carp with yellow or whitish colors and breeding them they could develop beautifully colored fish with tones of gold, orange, red and white. They also found they could breed changes in the shape of the fish. The Japanese carried the art still further. American breeders have also had a share in developing the extraordinary range of colors and shapes in modern goldfish, a few of which we show.

FOR YOU TO DO: Remember these points about raising goldfish: an aquarium with straight sides is best. Keep water clean and at 65 degrees F. Good foods are breadcrumbs, worms, water fleas, plants. Provide some shade for the fish.

★ ★ ★

Clubs Send Pair For Sessions Of Women's Group

Mrs. Edward Stephens of the Ohio View Women's Club and Mrs. Jack M. Peck of the Industry Borough Women's Club attended a meeting of the Executive Board of the Beaver County Federation of Women's Clubs Friday at Grace Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall in Rochester.

Mrs. Paul K. Murray, county president, announced the following dates for club yearbooks: Southwest District meeting, Sept. 14, Penn - Sheraton Hotel, Pittsburgh; fall federation meeting, Oct. 24, Broadhead Hotel, Beaver Falls; Spring Federation meeting, April 23, 1964, place to be announced, and Beaver County board meetings, Sept. 28, Jan. 25, 1964, and March 28, 1964.

The board adopted 100 per cent club participation in the Youth Conservation "Dream Fund" project and approved continuation of the Mental Health program. A summer workshop was planned.

Johnston Starts Duty As Member Of PUCO

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Kenneth B. Johnston, Columbus attorney, begins his duties today as a replacement for Miss Frances McGovern on the Utilities Commission.

Miss McGovern, a Democrat, has resigned. Johnston, also a Democrat, was appointed Saturday by Gov. James A. Rhodes. He will serve out Miss McGovern's term which runs until Feb. 1, 1967.

Survey Reveals Requirements Of New Plant Areas

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—When modern industry selects a new plant site it looks for location near a highway, an abundant labor supply, good land and proximity to markets.

Those four factors topped a list of industries' desires in a research program conducted over the past two years by the Ohio Trucking Association.

The association said it queried more than 4,000 plants, distribution centers and research and development facilities to explore "the latest trends in plant location to produce factual background with which trucking executives and trucking associations can be of maximum aid to industry and community planners in plant location decisions."

The only poisonous snake in all of Britain is the adder.

Ohioan Given Post

PITTSBURGH (AP) — National Steel Corp. said today Edwin J. Smith, a native of Hamilton, Ohio, has been named director of research and development.

NERVE DEAFNESS

"Model Of New" Miniature Hearing Aid Given
(not an actual hearing aid)

Washington, D. C.—A most unique free offer, of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words, has just been announced. A true-life, non-operating model, actual size replica of the smallest Motorola-Dahlberg Hearing Aid ever made, will be given away absolutely free to anyone answering this advertisement. Wear it in the privacy of your own home without cost or obligation of any kind . . . "IT'S YOURS FREE TO KEEP." The size of this instrument is only one of its many features. It weighs less than a third of an ounce and it is all at "ear level," in one unit. No wires lead from the body to the head. Here is truly hope for the Hard of Hearing. These models are free. We suggest that you write for yours now.
